

Carnegie Mellon University School of Music

WIND ENSEMBLE CONCERTO

COMPETITION 2023-24 RULES

Date for Undergraduate and Graduate Competition:

Monday, November 20, 2023, from 2:00-4:00 pm in Kresge Theater. Applicants will be judged by George Vosburgh and Stephen Story.

Deadline for submission of application:

Friday, November 3, 2023, at 12:00 pm. No Exceptions

The winner of the competition will play a concerto with the Carnegie Mellon Wind Ensemble during the Saturday, March 2, 2024 concert.

Competition Rules:

1. Auditionees can choose any piece that is written for a solo instrument accompanied by a wind ensemble. Arrangements of orchestral works are not acceptable. Exceptions can be made for pieces arranged for wind ensemble by the composer. Please keep in mind the length of your selection, long works are more difficult to program. Any questions regarding repertoire should be directed to Stephen Story.

2. Auditioning from memory is not required.

3. Accompanists are preferred but not necessary for this competition.

4. All auditionees must provide two copies of the solo, piano/solo or instrumental score of their concerto for the competition judges. You will be disqualified if you fail to do this!

5. Auditionees must be full-time music majors (in the BFA, MM, PRP, AMS or AD program) in good standing.

6. NO late or incomplete applications will be accepted.

7. The studio teacher's signature is required on the application form, forms will not be considered without this signature.

8. The application must be returned to Stephen Story, it can be placed in his mailbox or emailed to: story@andrew.cmu.edu.

9. Any contestant who fails to appear at their appointed time will be immediately disqualified.

10. Cancellations must be made by email to Stephen Story: story@andrew.cmu.edu
