

2023-2024 Identity & Statement of Educational Purpose

Your application was selected for review in a process called "Federal Verification." In this process, Carnegie Mellon is required to obtain verification documentation including verification of your Identity and a signed Statement of Educational Purpose. To fulfill this requirement, you must submit a signed and dated original copy of this document following these instructions:

- In person:
- 1) The student can submit a valid government-issued photo ID and the Statement of Educational Purpose on campus in The HUB.
 - 2) The Statement of Educational Purpose and your ID must be reviewed and accepted by an institutional-authorized individual.

- By mail:
- 1) The student can mail an original notarized Identity & Statement of Educational Purpose with an original signature to The HUB. (Complete the second page of this form.)
 - 2) The form must be an original document and cannot be faxed or emailed. A copy of the photo ID must be included.

IDENTITY & STATEMENT OF EDUCATIONAL PURPOSE

To be signed in person at Carnegie Mellon University.

The student must appear in person at Carnegie Mellon University to verify his or her identity by presenting a non-expired valid government-issued photo identification (ID), such as, but not limited to, a driver's license, other state-issued ID, or passport. The institution will maintain a copy of the student's photo ID that is annotated by the institution with the date it was received and renewed and the name of the official at the institution authorized to receive and review the student's ID.

In addition, the student must sign, in the presence of the institutional official, the Statement of Educational Purpose provided below:
