Alumni

Data Source:

The data used for the alumni section of this book are from the university's alumni database as of July 1, 2016.

Other Sources:

Carnegie Mellon Alumni Association Data: Office of Alumni Relations and Annual Giving

Definitions:

Alumni: Defined as (a) all persons who have been admitted to any school or college of Carnegie Institute of Technology or Carnegie Mellon University, who have completed at least one semester of classes in a degree program, and who have left the University in good standing and (b) all persons who have received an Honorary Degree from the University.

Active: Defined as all alumni who maintain a current postal or e-mail address

E-mail Only: Indicates that the only contact information available is e-mail address

Alumni Interest Group: Any group of Carnegie Mellon alumni who share a common interest or bond and who desire to affiliate with each other as a subgroup of the Carnegie Mellon Alumni Association. Alumni Interest Groups are formed around at least one of the following criteria:

Former membership in an officially recognized student organization

A shared personal characteristic (such as ethnicity, cultural background, or religion)

A shared postgraduate professional experience (such as entrepreneurs, lawyers, doctors, etc.)

Chapter: Historically, "clan" was chosen to describe the regional alumni groups of the Carnegie Mellon Alumni Association, reflecting the Scottish heritage of Andrew Carnegie. In recent years, "chapter" is used with more frequency as new groups are formed. For ease of reference, "chapter" refers to both clans and chapters.

Honorary Alumni: For degree level, honorary alumni are counted within the "Non-Grad/Certificate" category; for degree college and preferred degree level, honorary alumni are within the "Other/Honorary" category

Carnegie Mellon University Alumni Association

Mission: Cultivating a culture of engagement and philanthropy within Carnegie Mellon University's global community.

Strategic Objectives

1) Engagement

Increase alumni and student involvement with the university and each other annually.

2) Philanthropy

Educate and advocate the importance of philanthropy at Carnegie Mellon University.

3) Collaboration

Work in partnership with colleagues across campus to achieve departmental, divisional and university goals.

Academic and Professional Programs

CMU students and alumni alike possess a passion for learning. The CMU Alumni Association provides professional development and lifelong learning opportunities through two programs: CMUConnect and CMUThink. CMUConnect offers networking and professional development opportunities for alumni, while CMUThink provides intellectual experiences for alumni.

Alumni Association Board (AAB)

Twenty-three Voting Members:

Twenty Directors – five elected each year for non-renewable four-year terms

Three Alumni Officers serving two-year terms each – President, Immediate Past President, and President-Elect

One Staff Officer – Assistant VP for Alumni Relations; serves as Secretary of the AAB

Two to three Ex-officio Members – VP for University Advancement, a student representative from the Highland Ambassadors, and a rotating representative from the Andrew Carnegie Society Executive Board

Awards and Recognition

The Carnegie Mellon Alumni Association honors exceptional Carnegie Mellon alumni, students and faculty for their contributions to the university, their communities and their professions. . Honorees are celebrated annually at a Ceremony in Pittsburgh during Commencement Weekend. Award nominations are accepted year-round, with annual selection deadlines on November 30 for Student Service Awards and September 1 for all other Award categories.

Global Networks

The Carnegie Mellon Global Network is made up of alumni, students and parents interested in building and maintaining connections with each other and the university. The Global Network is composed of Regional Networks where CMU enthusiasts are meeting around the globe to network, learn and socialize; and Interest Networks where communities are built around personal characteristics and student organization involvement.

On-Campus Events

Through traditions like Homecoming and Spring Carnival, the CMU Alumni Association strives to provide meaningful and fun experiences for alumni to connect with each other and the university on the Pittsburgh campus.

Online Services

Carnegie Mellon provides online services for alumni and students at alumni.cmu.edu, including an online directory, email forwarding, event calendars and registration, online giving, social media, regional and alumni interest networks web pages and online programs such as webinars, webcasts and online networking.

Reunions

In 2017, the 25th reunion will be celebrated on campus as part of Spring Carnival and the 50th reunion will be celebrated in conjunction with Commencement Weekend. In addition to the on-campus celebrations, regional and online opportunities will be created to engage as many classmates as possible in these anniversaries. The CMU Alumni Association also assists with events and activities around other significant anniversaries tied to class years, departments, organizations or other university groups.

Student Programs

The CMU Alumni Association works throughout the academic year to connect both undergraduate and graduate students with alumni, increase awareness of the lifelong connection to CMU and educate about the importance of philanthropy. Volunteer and engagement programs include: Highland Ambassadors, student spirit and engagement programs and various events throughout the year from orientation through commencement weekend.

Volunteer Engagement

Each year, over 4,000 alumni, students, staff, faculty, trustees and friends of the university dedicate their time and talents to CMU. Volunteer roles range from interviewing incoming students to planning events in your city or region to organizing reunions and everything in between. There are many opportunities to serve the university, leaving your mark and making CMU stronger. The CMU Alumni Association helps in matching volunteer interests with needs at the university, provides university insights and training during Volunteer Forum and recognizes volunteers for the impact they have on the university and our community.
