

Laurie R. Weingart

Dr. Laurie R. Weingart is the Richard M. and Margaret S. Cyert Professor of Organizational Behavior at Carnegie Mellon University's Tepper School of Business. Having served in several leadership roles within her college, university, and profession, she is currently the chair of CMU's Faculty Senate and co-leads the Collaboration and Conflict Research Lab within the Tepper School.

Coauthor of The No Club: Putting a Stop to Women's Dead-End Work, her research and teaching examines collaboration, conflict, and negotiation, with a focus on how differences across people both help and hinder effective problem solving and innovation. Professor Weingart has published over 70 articles and book chapters in the fields of management, psychology, and economics. An elected Fellow of the Academy of Management and recipient of the Joseph E. McGrath Award for Lifetime Achievement in the Study of Groups, her award-winning research has been covered by major news outlets in the US and around the world.
