5:47 pm Student Dormitory Council (Dan Jentzen)

- SDC is looking to raise the dorm fee from $12-$15. There has been no increase in 7 years and facilities have been expanded (e.g.: the DVD lending library).
- The Underground Battle of the Bands was a success.

5:49 pm Student Body President (Dan Gilman)

- There is approval to float the idea of turning Danforth Lounge into a fitness center to accommodate the overflow in the existing UC fitness center. Some students have expressed concerns about the issue and all sides of the issue will be explored.
- Approval has been secured to investigate the possibility of flat screen activities monitors to be installed in the UC. These screens will show university activities and headline news.
- University Center operating policies will be reviewed.
- Two forums regarding the new diploma designs were held. Approximately 30 people attended and the meetings were conducive.
- The undergraduate tuition meeting was held last night to discuss how Carnegie Mellon compares to other university, current and upcoming financial issues, etc.

- A man representing Bulldog Savings contacted the university and met with Dan Gilman last night. They are offering a promo to students – the Dean has not yet decided if they will be allowed on campus to sell their program.

5:58 pm Student Body Vice President (Dan Gilman)

- First Year Council met – midterm grades are lower than in past years. Possible causes are being explored.
- The Gay/Strait alliance council met and is working to get more unisex restrooms, a proposal that does pose security threats of drug use, sexual assault, etc.
- A web-portal meeting was held reviewing success of the changes and possible future changes and consolidations.
- Student Activities Fee was presented to GSA. Cost cutting measures were supported and the issue will be voted on in December.

6:01 pm Student Body Vice President of Finance (Vito Fiore)

- JFC is going well

6:01 pm Student Body Dining Chair (Russ Borum)

- Weekly meetings are held Mondays 4:30-5:30 – all are invited to attend.
- The committee's main semester objective this semester is soliciting feedback from students through e-mails, feedback boxes, access to managers and chefs, the dining website, and residence halls visits by committee members.
- Issues addressed in the Statement on Dining which came out of Campus Life Committee last year are being explored and the following issues are being enforced and addressed:
 - Vendors are required to sell food for the same price on campus as at their off-campus locations for equivalent items.
 - Continued opportunities for improvements in food service are being explored.
 - Increased vegetarian/vegan/kosher/Hillel options are being developed.
 - Dining committee is working to enhanced late night dining options every day and during break periods.
 - Increased availability of a greater variety of food types
 - Establishment of a viable all-you-can-eat dining facility Monday-Thursday and a traditional dining hall option
 - A forum in Schatz Dining Room regarding possible alternative uses for Highlander is scheduled.
