Interdisciplinary Programs

Bachelor of Humanities and Arts (BHA), Bachelor of Science and Arts (BSA) & Bachelor of Computer Science and Arts (BCSA)

These interdisciplinary programs are for students who want to apply to combine and blend their interests in the fine arts and another college on campus.

- To be considered for the BHA program, you must apply and be admitted to BOTH the College of Fine Arts and the College of Humanities and Social Sciences. For the School of Drama, acting and music theatre are not available.
- To be considered for the BSA program, you must apply and be admitted to BOTH the College of Fine Arts and the Mellon College of Science. For the School of Drama, acting and music theatre are not available.
- To be considered for the BCSA program, you must apply and be admitted to BOTH the College of Fine Arts and the School of Computer Science. For the School of Drama, production, technology and management is the only option available. For the School of Music, composition and music technology are the only options available.

Students must also detail their interest in each college/major in their Supplement Essay (See Section VI). The Intercollege Degree Programs section of the application has more information on applying to these programs. If applying to the concentrations of architecture, art, design, drama or music, you must go to <www.cmu.edu/admission/finearts> to register for an audition, portfolio review or to complete the School of Architecture online questionnaire.

Section V Fine Arts Applicants: Audition/Portfolio Review/Online Questionnaire Information

If you are applying to the Schools of Architecture, Art, Design, Drama or Music within the College of Fine Arts, you must register for an audition, portfolio review or online questionnaire at <www.cmu.edu/admission/finearts>. Your Common Application and Supplement are due November 1, 2009 for Early Decision (there is no Early Decision for acting, directing, music theatre, composition, flute, piano or voice) and the Regular Decision deadline for architecture, art, design, drama and music is December 1. If you are applying to more than one school in the College of Fine Arts then you must complete the necessary fine arts requirements for each school.

School of Architecture

All applicants to the School of Architecture must complete a required online questionnaire. All applicants are also highly recommended to submit a portfolio of creative work for review and visit the School of Architecture for a scheduled on-campus portfolio review with School of Architecture faculty. You can also submit a portfolio for online review if you are unable to visit the School for an on-campus review.

Additionally, applicants who wish to participate in a formal on-campus portfolio review with architecture faculty must register for the portfolio review appointment online no later than January 1, 2010. At the time of the portfolio review, you will bring your portfolio and meet with architecture faculty for inquiry, critique and interactive discussion. Review appointments are limited so please register as soon as possible. To complete the online questionnaire, review portfolio formatting guidelines, register for an on-campus portfolio review or to obtain details regarding online submission of a portfolio of creative work, please go to <www.cmu.edu/admission/finearts> for further instructions.

Section V (continued) Fine Arts Applicants: Audition/Portfolio Review/Online Questionnaire Information

School of Art

You must register online for a portfolio review in order to be considered for admission to the School of Art; please go to <www.cmu.edu/admission/finearts> for dates and availability. If you will be submitting your portfolio electronically, it is due on or before January 15, 2010. There are on-campus portfolio reviews during the months of November, January and February. The November on-campus review is for Early Decision applicants only. January and February reviews are for Regular Decision applicants. We honor review appointments on a first-come, first-served basis. Please register as soon as possible to secure a review appointment.

School of Design

The School of Design offers two ways for your work to be reviewed: (1) an on-campus review, or (2) an electronic posting of digital work to a secure website. Choose only one of these options. Visit the School of Design Web site, <www.design.cmu.edu>, and select admissions for more information on these options.

You may submit a portfolio of work or a Design Project. The Design Project is also an option for students who have a limited portfolio; see the "Design Project Instructions" listed in the application booklet. If you will be showing your portfolio or Design Project on-campus, which is strongly recommended, reviews occur during the months of November (Early Decision only), January and February. You must register online for a School of Design portfolio review, whether on-campus or electronic posting; please go to <www.cmu.edu/admission/finearts> for review dates and availability and additional information regarding electronic submission. Applicants interested in Early Decision consideration must submit portfolio materials by November 1, 2009. We honor review appointments on a first-come, first-served basis. Please register as soon as possible to secure a review appointment.

School of Drama (There is an additional $80 audition fee due at the time of registration.)

You must schedule an audition (acting, music theatre), portfolio review (design, production technology and management) or interview (directing, dramaturgy) online in order to be considered for admission to the School of Drama; please visit <www.cmu.edu/admission/finearts> for online registration and to view the finalized 2009-2010 cities, dates and availability. You DO NOT need to wait until you have submitted your complete application to Carnegie Mellon to schedule an audition/portfolio review/interview. Please register as soon as possible to secure an appointment at your desired location; we honor appointments on a first-come, first-served basis.

Tentative dates and locations for 2009-2010:

Acting/Music Theatre:

Pittsburgh—November, January, February
Chicago, New York, Los Angeles—February

Directing:

Pittsburgh—November, January, February
Chicago, New York, Los Angeles—February

Design/Production Technology and Management:

Pittsburgh—November, January, February
Chicago, New York, Los Angeles—February

Dramaturgy: Interviews are scheduled on an individual basis by contacting Dr. Michael Chemers at <chemers@andrew.cmu.edu> or 412-268-2399.

School of Music (There is an additional $50 fee due at the time of registration.)

In addition to completing and submitting the Common Application and Carnegie Mellon Common Application Supplement and all supporting materials to the Office of Admission, School of Music applicants are also required to register for an audition or portfolio review by completing the following three online steps:

- 1) Proceed to the School of Music Web site at <<http://music.cmu.edu>>, click on "apply/audition," and enter the requested information.
- 2) Pay the $50 audition or portfolio review fee.
- 3) Make an audition or portfolio review appointment.

Each instrument, studio or area of study has specific instructions and requirements for the audition or the portfolio review. Applicants who do not meet or follow the specific requirements and instructions cannot be considered for admission. Visit the School of Music Web site at <http://music.cmu.edu> for more information as well as a complete listing of audition and portfolio review dates and locations.

Section VI Essay

Please submit a one-page, single-spaced essay that explains why you have chosen Carnegie Mellon and your particular major(s), department(s) or program(s). This essay should include the reasons why you've chosen the major(s), any goals or relevant work plans and any other information you would like us to know. If you are applying to more than one college or program, please mention each college or program to which you are applying. Because our admission committees review applicants by college and programs, your essay can impact our final decision. Please do not exceed one page for this essay.

Section VII Signature Acknowledgement

Reminder to all applicants: Your signature on the Common Application certified that all information submitted to Carnegie Mellon in the admission process — including this supplement and any other supporting materials — is your own work, factually true, and honestly presented. You signature also confirmed your understanding that you may be subject to disciplinary action, including admission revocation or expulsion, should the information you've certified be false.

Reminder to Early Decision applicants: If you plan to apply as via the Early Decision option, you must submit the Common Application ED Agreement Form. This form certifies that Carnegie Mellon is your first choice and, if admitted, you plan to enroll and agree to immediately withdraw all applications for admission at other colleges or universities.
