

HOWARD HUGHES MEDICAL INSTITUTE
UNDERGRADUATE BIOLOGICAL SCIENCES EDUCATION PROGRAM
REQUEST FOR FUNDING OF STUDENT PROJECT

INSTRUCTIONS: Please fill in blanks for all requested information.

Applications from students wishing to participate in the HHMI program must be submitted to Dr. Elizabeth Jones, Mellon Institute, Box D.

IMPORTANT: Submission of this form does not guarantee approval of funding. Students should not begin to work until they receive notification of funding and have completed payroll documents in the MCS Dean's Office. The MCS Dean's Office will not be responsible for compensation to students who begin work before completing payroll documents. If approved, funding is not automatically renewable. Applications must be re-submitted for each student for each academic year and/or for each summer work period. NOTE: Wages will be available during the academic year on a limited basis for students eligible for financial aid. Students not eligible for financial aid are encouraged to do research for credit. A statement of eligibility for work/study may be required for students requesting wages during the academic year. A student may work a maximum of 12 hours per week during the academic year; however, if you get permission from Dr. Eric Grotzinger, you can work up to 20 hours a week. If the student exceeds the award amount, the mentor is responsible for the difference. Summer funding will be available without respect to financial need; a student may work a maximum of 37.5 hours per week during the summer.
