The Cyert Center for Early Education is a department of Carnegie Mellon University and offers spaces first to the children of benefits eligible University employees. Part time faculty and staff who are not eligible for University benefits and Carnegie Mellon students are next in priority on the wait list. If a space occurs for a community family, it will most likely be in the PreK-Kindergarten room.

We are committed to reaching out to people of different races, genders, ethnicity, and ability, and we strive to create an environment of inclusion that celebrates our differences and highlights our commonalities. Our program accepts children with special needs as long as a safe, supportive environment can be provided for the child consistent with the requirements of the Americans with Disabilities Act. For a complete description of Carnegie Mellon's Commitment to Diversity, please see <http://hr.web.cmu.edu/current/eos/commitment/>.
