This event continues a series titled "Working Papers," in which scholars from the LCS department will share their current work. Scholars make available a selection of their writing before the session which will be presented and discussed.

To receive a copy of the papers being discussed, please contact Jack Quirk at jquirk@andrew.cmu.edu

Christopher Warren
Associate Professor, Literary and Cultural Studies

"History, Literature, and Authority in International Law"

Stephen Wittek
Assistant Professor, Literary and Cultural Studies

"Conversational Thinking and the London Stage"

Thurs, Sept 28
4:30 - 6:00
255B Baker

The Literary and Cultural Studies Colloquium
Department of English
Carnegie Mellon University