For information on departmental scholarships, grants, stipends, assistantships, and fellowships, contact the academic department you plan to attend to find out what is available. The department will also be able to discuss the requirements of these programs.

The HUB

Graduate Students (with the exception of The Heinz College and Tepper School of Business) should contact an Assistant Director in The HUB (go to www.cmu.edu/hub/contacts.html to find your college contact) for information regarding:

- financial aid application process
- financial need analysis determination
- financial aid programs
- student account balances
- students loans
- payment plans
- enrollment/financial aid questions
- academic and financial aid forms

The Assistant Directors are available Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 8:30 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. and Tuesday and Thursday from 10:30 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. to assist you with all of your enrollment needs. Visit us at The HUB, Warner Hall, Lower Level.

GRADUATE LOAN CERTIFICATION

Suggested Application Deadline: April 15, 2015
(There is no penalty applied for applying after April 15.)

*Graduate loan certification will begin on or after May 18, 2015 and will continue until the end of the Spring 2016 semester. Please refer to The HUB website (www.cmu.edu/finaid/loans/summer) for summer financing options.

FINANCIAL AID APPLICATION PROCESS

The following is a list of the information and documents that you will need in order to apply for financial aid at Carnegie Mellon. Please note that to apply for federal financial aid ONLY, students need only to complete a FAFSA. However, we recommend completing all the following steps to maximize your eligibility:

1. 2015-2016 FAFSA (www.fafsa.gov)
   The FAFSA must be submitted and processed before completing the remaining steps. You are required to complete and submit a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) if you wish to apply for federal financial aid. Federal financial aid includes the Federal Perkins Loan, Federal Direct Student Loan, Federal Work-Study and Federal Direct Grad PLUS Loan. The Carnegie Mellon Federal School Code is 003242.

   Prior to completing the FAFSA on the web, you need to request a Personal Identification Number (PIN) from the Department of Education. Request a PIN by visiting www.pin.ed.gov. If you already have a PIN, you do not need to request a new one. If you have lost or forgotten your PIN, you need to request that it be sent to you again. If you think someone knows your PIN, select the Change PIN option to request a new PIN combination. You may use your PIN for the duration of your school experience and beyond. The security of your PIN is important because it can be used to:

   - Electronically sign Federal Student Aid documents
   - Access your personal records
   - Make binding legal obligations

2. Verification Selection ONLY Once you receive your FAFSA results, please review your Student Aid Report (SAR) closely to determine if you have been selected for verification. If you have been selected for verification, you will see this message: “171=Your FAFSA/App...”
If selected, please complete the required Federal Verification Form for Independent Students (www.cmu.edu/finaid/docs/1516-verif-independent.pdf) and fax the signed form, along with your 2014 Federal Tax Return Transcript to 412-268-8084. Instructions for ordering an IRS Tax Return Transcript can be found at www.cmu.edu/finaid/undergraduate/tax-transcript.html. It is recommended that you request a transcript online.

2. Master Promissory Note (MPN) & Federal Entrance Counseling
First-time borrowers: To apply for Federal Direct Loans, go to www.studentloans.gov and complete the Master Promissory Note and required Entrance Counseling Session. You will need your PIN from your FAFSA to log onto this site.

3. Graduate PLUS Loan
If you plan on utilizing a Federal Direct Graduate PLUS Loan, this is a two-part process and both parts must be completed in order for your Grad PLUS Loan to be originated. This can also be completed at www.studentloans.gov. If you borrowed a Grad PLUS Loan last academic year, you are only required to complete the application portion of the process.

4. Financial Aid Portal in SIO
Carnegie Mellon students may view their submitted and requested financial aid documents in the Financial Aid Portal within Student Information Online (SIO), as well as complete attestations and cancel federal loans. To enter the portal, students should go to the ‘Financial Aid Status/Award’ page under the ‘Finances’ tab in SIO (www.cmu.edu/hub/sio).

TEACHER CERTIFICATION

Teacher certification students at the graduate level should be aware that federal regulations classify them as a grade level 5 undergraduate student for Federal Direct Loan purposes. Teacher certification students are, however, considered a graduate student by Carnegie Mellon for academic purposes.
Eligibility for Financial Aid

Eligibility for federal aid programs is determined by using a Congressional formula called Federal Methodology. It uses your and/or your spouse’s total taxable and untaxed 2014 income, current equity in assets which you were required to report on the FAFSA, and number enrolled in college at least half-time, to determine the amount you are expected to pay toward your education. This amount is called your Expected Family Contribution (EFC).

Federal Title IV Verification

The Federal Department of Education requires that Federal Title IV applicants provide documentation to verify the accuracy of the information submitted on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) each year. Federal regulations include verification as part of the Federal Student Aid (FSA) program requirements and it is required for applicants for most FSA programs with the exception of students receiving only a Direct Grad PLUS Loan or an unsubsidized Federal Direct Student Loan. Each university is required to have policies for verifying the reported information.

At Carnegie Mellon, federal verification is performed on all applicants selected by the Department of Education and any application that the university has reason to believe is incorrect or has conflicting documentation.

Cost of Attendance

Cost of Attendance is the expected dollar amount you will need to attend Carnegie Mellon for an academic year. Please refer to the Tuition & Fees webpage (www.cmu.edu/hub/tuition/graduate) for cost of attendance information (posted in May).

Maximum Graduate Loan Eligibility

Using the cost of attendance, you can calculate your estimated loan eligibility. Cost of attendance will vary. You should refer to The HUB website (www.cmu.edu/hub/tuition/graduate) for more information.

MAXIMUM GRADUATE LOAN ELIGIBILITY

- Cost of Attendance
- Minus -
  Scholarships, Fellowships, Tuition/Fee Stipends (untaxed only)
  - Equals -
  Unsubsidized Federal Direct Loan Eligibility (Maximum is $20,500)

Effective beginning in 2012-2013, graduate students are no longer eligible to receive direct subsidized loans. Information regarding the Budget Control Act can be found at http://ifap.ed.gov/dpcletters/GEN1116.html.
If we are unable to process your financial aid package due to missing documents, you will receive a Financial Aid Alert Email. If you receive an email, please remit all required documents by the date specified. If you do not complete the application process and submit all requested documents, we may be unable to complete your financial aid package for the academic year.

Federal Title IV

Federal academic progress standards must include two elements: Cumulative QPA and cumulative units. At Carnegie Mellon, graduate students (excluding graduate students in Tepper School of Business and The Heinz College) must pass 80 percent of all cumulative units attempted at Carnegie Mellon and have at least a 2.00 cumulative QPA.

ACADEMIC PROGRESS INFORMATION

Financial Aid Award Notifications
Once your Financial Aid package has been determined, you will be sent an email notifying you that your 2015-2016 Financial Aid Eligibility status is available in the Financial Aid Portal within Student Information Online (SIO). To enter the portal, students should go to the ‘Financial Aid Status/Award’ page under the ‘Finances’ tab in SIO (www.cmu.edu/hub/sio). We recommend that you print and keep a copy of your award letter (and any revised letters) for your records.

Financial Aid Alert Email
If we are unable to process your financial aid package due to missing documents, you will receive a Financial Aid Alert Email. If you receive an email, please remit all required documents by the date specified. If you do not complete the application process and submit all requested documents, we may be unable to complete your financial aid package for the academic year.

Appeal Process
Carnegie Mellon realizes that extenuating circumstances may contribute to a student’s inability to achieve satisfactory academic progress, and thus we encourage students to appeal after they receive notification of failure. Appeal examples include: extended illness, changes in major, difficult transition to first-year in college (academically and socially), recent diagnosis of learning disability or a recent death of a close family member.

Depending on the nature of the appeal, the student may also be required to develop and submit a Federal Financial Aid Academic Progress Improvement Plan.
The Carnegie Mellon Tuition Payment Plan allows students and families to pay amounts due to the university in manageable monthly installments and provides the convenience of enrolling and making payments online through Tuition Management Systems (TMS). Enroll in a TMS payment plan by visiting www.cmu.afford.com.

Annual plans are available for Health Insurance only. All other plans are semester-based.

Benefits

- Life insurance coverage for the bill payer’s account.
- Families have the flexibility of reducing or increasing their annual/semester budgets accordingly if a balance is due to the university or if there is a credit balance on the CMU student account.
- CMU will communicate to students/payers via email no less than twice each semester if their TMS plan requires adjustment.

Important Information

- TMS representatives do not have access to specific CMU student account information due to FERPA regulations*.
- The university only provides TMS with cost of attendance information (www.cmu.edu/hub/tuition).
- CMU receives TMS adjustment files every Tuesday. Changes made to a TMS budget plan on a Tuesday or later will NOT appear on the CMU student account until the following week.

BorrowSmart

For families who need assistance in developing an education payment strategy, TMS offers BorrowSmart, a debt minimization service. Free BorrowSmart planning and counseling is available via email (service@afford.com) or phone at 888-216-4269 Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. and Saturdays from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. For specific TMS plan inquiries and assistance with budget adjustments, please contact TMS directly at 888-722-4867. *Student account information can only be provided by CMU staff to students due to the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974.

Graduate Notice to Students Receiving Financial Aid

Graduate students and students supported by their academic department also receiving financial aid in excess of their amount due to CMU should not enroll in TMS for the Health Insurance Plan, as health charges will be deducted from their financial aid.
GRADUATE STUDENT FINANCIAL AID OPTIONS

Scholarships

Scholarships are awards that you do not have to repay. The HUB does not award grants or scholarships to graduate students. Graduate departments award these funds.

*For information on the availability of scholarships, grants, stipends, assistantships, and fellowships, contact the academic department you plan to attend.

Fellowships and Scholarships Office (FSO)
The Fellowships and Scholarships Office provides support to Carnegie Mellon graduate students who are interested in pursuing certain external scholarships (Fulbright and the UK Awards). The office works with students to help them develop competitive applications, identifies and supports faculty and staff representatives for a select number of prestigious scholarships and fellowships, maintains a website of external scholarship and fellowship opportunities, and manages campus selection processes.

Student Loans

Student loans are self-help awards that must be repaid.

Federal Direct Student Loan

1. A Federal Direct Student Loan is a loan provided by the Department of Education. Please view direct loan interest rates and fees at www.cmu.edu/finaid/loans/direct.html. The total for the unsubsidized Federal Direct Student Loan is $20,500 per academic year. The aggregate limit for unsubsidized Federal Direct Student Loans is $138,500. You can access your federal student loan borrowing history by visiting the financial aid review section www.nslds.ed.gov.

2. Effective beginning with the 2012-2013 academic year, graduate students are no longer eligible to receive direct subsidized loans.

3. All graduate students planning on borrowing an unsubsidized Federal Direct Student Loan for the first time are required to complete a new Master Promissory Note and Federal Direct Loan Entrance Counseling. Specific instructions for applying and reapplying can be found on The HUB website (www.cmu.edu/finaid/loans/direct.html).

4. You must be a U.S. Citizen or eligible non-citizen, be enrolled on at least on a half-time basis, complete the FAFSA, submit all other required documents, complete the CMU Graduate Student Loan Form, complete your Federal Direct Student Loan MPN and Entrance Loan Counseling, and complete the Attestations on Student Information Online (www.cmu.edu/hub/sio).
Federal Direct Graduate PLUS Loan

Federal Direct Graduate PLUS Loans are available to graduate and professional students, allowing a graduate student to borrow on his/her own behalf up to the standard graduate cost of attendance less other aid received.

A Federal Direct Grad PLUS Loan is a non-need based loan provided by the Department of Education to creditworthy graduate students. The interest rate is fixed at 7.21%. Graduate and professional borrowers who are enrolled at least half-time qualify for an automatic in-school deferment. Interest will accrue during the in-school period. A 4.292% origination fee is assessed by the Department of Education.

The funds will be sent to Carnegie Mellon via electronic funds transfer (EFT) and will be electronically deposited into the student’s account. These funds are disbursed no earlier than 10 days prior to the first day of class.

Learn more about applying for a Federal Direct PLUS Loan on The HUB website (www.cmu.edu/finaid/docs/direct-plus-instructions.pdf.)

Unsubsidized Federal Direct Student Loan

An unsubsidized Federal Direct Student Loan is not based on financial need. You have the choice to pay the interest that accumulates on the unsubsidized loan every three months while you are in school or have the interest capitalized (instead of paying the interest every three months, it is added back to the principal at the time of repayment). If you choose to capitalize, this will increase the amount you have to repay. We suggest you pay the interest as it accumulates, as you’ll repay less in the long run. The annual maximum you can borrow under this program is $20,500.

More information regarding Federal Direct Student Loans is available online at www.cmu.edu/finaid/loans.
FEDERAL ENTRANCE LOAN COUNSELING

All Federal Direct Loan first-time borrowers are required to complete an online entrance counseling session. The entrance counseling session provides information about borrower rights and responsibilities. After reading the information, the student will be quizzed on their knowledge.

Carnegie Mellon will be notified when a student has completed online entrance counseling. Funds will not be disbursed until the entrance counseling session has been completed.

PRIVATE LOANS

Pennsylvania Private Loan Marketplace

Carnegie Mellon believes that it is important for us to help students navigate the complex task of choosing a private loan provider, which is why we participate in the Pennsylvania Private Loan Marketplace.

Learn more about private loans and view the marketplace at www.cmu.edu/finaid/loans/private.html.

Truth-in-Lending Act (TILA)

Regulations in the Higher Education Opportunity Act (HEOA) impact private student loan borrowers, lenders and schools. These regulations changed the disclosure requirements for the Truth-In-Lending Act (TILA). However, these requirements do not impact the availability of private student loans, only the loan origination process.

Visit www.cmu.edu/finaid/loans/tila.html for more information regarding TILA.
TUITION REMISSION

Carnegie Mellon Staff Tuition Remission is a benefit offered by the university for employees. A tuition remission form must be completed each semester. Contact Human Resources for information (https://hr.web.cmu.edu).

PAYROLL DEDUCTION

Funding for graduate students by payroll deduction is determined by the individual department and reflected accordingly within your bi-monthly paycheck and via your student account. You are responsible for any charges not covered by your payroll deduction amount by the published due dates.

It is imperative that you look closely at your pay statement each pay period. In order to see a copy of your pay statement, payment records, and have the ability to update your contact information, email address and phone number, you must log in to CMUWorks at https://www.cmu.edu/cmuworks/index.html. If you have any questions about logging into CMUWorks, please contact the CMUWorks Service Center at 412-268-4600 or cmu-works@andrew.cmu.edu.

If your pay statement does not list the appropriate deductions (e.g.: Payroll Deduction - Tuition, Payroll Deduction - Fees), then the deduction has not been established. It is your responsibility to contact your department’s Business Manager.

NOTE: Federal regulation requires Carnegie Mellon to treat untaxed tuition and fee stipends as a financial aid resource in the determination of eligibility for federal need-based student loans.
FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Is it possible to calculate my maximum eligibility for Federal Direct Student Loan funds prior to receiving official notification?

Yes. By using the Cost of Attendance, you can calculate your estimated loan eligibility. Cost of Attendance will vary and is available at www.cmu.edu/hub/tuition/graduate.

Estimated Cost of Education for Fall and Spring
- minus-
Scholarships, Fellowships, Tuition/Fee Stipends (untaxed only)
- equals-
Your Unsubsidized Federal Direct Loan Eligibility
(Maximum is $20,500)

What if I haven’t submitted all the documents needed to complete my loan?

An email will be sent to you requesting the missing documents. You may also view your financial information via SIO.

How and when can I receive a refund of the excess credit balance from my student account?

We encourage you to enroll in Online Banking through SIO so you can receive electronic refunds directly to your bank account. This service is free-of-charge and open to all enrolled students. To register a bank account, go to SIO (www.cmu.edu/hub/sio) and sign in using your Andrew ID and password. Complete your bank account information and be sure to check the box beside ‘Refund account.’ Refunding typically begins during the first day of classes.

When will I be notified of the Federal Direct Student Loan and Grad PLUS Loan amounts for which I am eligible?

Once your eligibility has been calculated, you will be sent an Award Letter notification email with instructions on how to view your award letter in the Financial Aid Portal within SIO (www.cmu.edu/hub/sio).

Can enrolling part-time affect my financial aid package?

Yes. Your financial aid package is based on full-time (36 units or more per semester) enrollment. If you are enrolled part-time, your financial aid package will be revised on the 10th day of classes to reflect your part-time status.

Can I borrow loans to pay for my living expenses in addition to covering my tuition?

Yes. We use a standard cost of attendance that includes a standard housing and room allowance. The graduate cost of attendance information is available on The HUB website (www.cmu.edu/hub/tuition/graduate).

I am an international student, am I eligible for student loans?

You are not eligible for federal loan programs. You may be eligible for some private loan programs, open to international students who have U.S. co-signers. Visit www.cmu.edu/finaid/loans/private.html for information about private loans.
OTHER BORROWING OPTIONS

If you’re thinking about using a 401(k), home equity loan or other investments to finance a student’s education, here are a few things you should contemplate, and discuss with a financial advisor.

401(k)
You may be able to borrow against your 401(k) and pay yourself back with interest this way. This may affect the money you will need for retirement. Another important thing to remember is that the contributions you made to your 401(k) were in pretax dollars. If you take out a loan, you’ll be paying yourself back in after-tax dollars. Also be aware that some plans require an employee who loses his/her job to pay back the 401(k) loan immediately.

Investments
Cashing in investments may seem more attractive than borrowing. This may increase your income tax liability with additional capital gains. By cashing in investments, you lose any future returns on that money, which in turn may affect the money you will need for retirement.

Home Equity Loan
Approval for a home equity loan is based on several factors including credit history, debt-to-income ratio and equity in your home. The interest on this loan may be tax-deductible. Be sure to compare this interest rate to the interest rate you qualify for if you apply for a private loan. And does this leave you with any funds for emergencies or other opportunities? The amount borrowed is limited only by the amount of equity in the applicant’s home, debt-to-income ratio, and credit-worthiness. Another important thing to remember is that there are no deferments available during unemployment or economic hardships.

STUDENT ACCOUNT

Student Account Invoices
Student account invoices are produced for you on the last calendar day of each month. The invoice includes both current activity and future semester charges and credits when they are available. Carnegie Mellon will notify you electronically when an invoice is produced and ready to be viewed on Student Information Online (SIO). Carnegie Mellon does not mail paper invoices.

You can authorize parents, spouses or other individuals to receive your invoices by email through SIO (www.cmu.edu/hub/sio). Log onto SIO, and under the ‘My Info’ tab, go to ‘Manage Family & Friends.’ Click ‘+ add friend or family’, complete the fields, and check the ‘Manage E-Bills’ button. Authorized individuals will receive a separate email with a PDF attachment of the invoice.

For more billing information, visit www.cmu.edu/hub/billing.
Federal loans will not automatically be reflected as a credit to your student account until the loan proceeds have been electronically disbursed through electronic funds transfer (EFT) to Carnegie Mellon. You must apply for these loans.

Reminder: Because of the lender’s origination fee, 49.5% of the annual amount of a Federal Direct Student Loan and 48% of the annual amount of a Federal Grad PLUS Loan will appear on your student account each semester once the funds are disbursed.

Charges

Your invoice may contain charges for tuition, housing, dining, health insurance and administrative fees. Visit www.cmu.edu/hub/tuition/graduate to view cost of attendance information. Note: Books, supplies, transportation and personal expenses do not appear on the invoice.

Financial Aid Credits

With the exception of outside scholarships, one-half of your annual financial aid will be applied as a credit to your student account each semester.

TAX INFORMATION

Tax Benefits for Education

There are many tax credits and deductions available to help you offset the costs of higher education. Visit www.cmu.edu/finaid/tax for all of your options.

STATEMENT OF ASSURANCE

Carnegie Mellon University does not discriminate and Carnegie Mellon University is required not to discriminate in admission, employment, or administration of its programs or activities on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex or handicap in violation of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972 and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 or other federal, state, or local laws or executive orders.

In addition, Carnegie Mellon University does not discriminate in admission, employment or administration of its programs on the basis of religion, creed, ancestry, belief, age, veteran status, sexual orientation or gender identity. Carnegie Mellon does not discriminate in violation of federal, state, or local laws or executive orders. However, in the judgment of the Carnegie Mellon Human Relations Commission, the Presidential Executive Order directing the Department of Defense to follow a policy of, “Don’t ask, don’t tell, don’t pursue,” excludes openly gay, lesbian and bisexual students from receiving ROTC scholarships or serving in the military. Nevertheless, all ROTC classes at Carnegie Mellon University are available to all students.

Inquiries concerning application of these statements should be directed to the Provost, Carnegie Mellon University, 5000 Forbes Avenue, Pittsburgh, PA 15213, telephone 412-268-6684 or the Vice President for Campus Affairs, Carnegie Mellon University, 5000 Forbes Avenue, Pittsburgh, PA 15213, telephone 412-268-2057.

Carnegie Mellon University publishes an annual campus security report describing the university’s security, alcohol and drug, and sexual assault policies and containing statistics about the number and type of crimes committed on the campus during the preceding three years. You can obtain a copy by contacting the Carnegie Mellon Police Department at 412-268-2323. The security report is available online at www.cmu.edu/police/statistics.htm.

Carnegie Mellon University makes every effort to provide accessible facilities and programs for individuals with disabilities. For accommodations/services please contact the Equal Opportunity Services Office at 412-268-2012.
