

FULBRIGHT APPLICATION TIMELINE
Carnegie Mellon University
2010 – 2011 Cycle

Campus Fulbright Program Advisors:
Julia Spencer (julias@cmu.edu) &
Elisa Tragni Maloney (tragni@andrew.cmu.edu)

APRIL – JUNE 2009

- April-May: attend campus information sessions and schedule individual meetings with Fulbright Program Advisors. Choose your host country, determine your project type, and determine your language proficiency.
- May-July: develop project and personal statements
 - Meet with (or contact) faculty who have expertise in your research area to discuss your project.
 - Write drafts of your personal statement and your project proposal.
 - Request transcripts.
 - Research country affiliations.
 - Secure commitment for letters of recommendation.
- June 1: submit campus registration form indicating intent to apply.
- July: meet with campus Fulbright advisors to discuss and review your project proposal and personal statement.
 - Establish your country affiliation.
- August (at the latest): ask three faculty members to write letters of recommendation for you (letters due September 17). Supply them with a copy of your project proposal, personal statement and any other relevant material. Schedule meeting with Fulbright advisors to review final application and procedures.
 - Obtain your affiliation letters.

SEPTEMBER 2009

- September 17: campus deadline for submission of completed Fulbright application (in hard copy) to the FSO, 5th floor Warner Hall.
- Sign up for Fulbright interviews (interviews take place beginning of October.)

OCTOBER 2009

- Attend scheduled Fulbright interviews.
- Edit your essays with regard to interview feedback.
- October 12: deadline for final campus submission of application.

FEBRUARY 2010

- February 1: Notification from the US Fulbright Commission whether your application has been selected to be forwarded to the country Fulbright Commission.

MARCH-JUNE 2010

- Notification from the country Fulbright Commission whether your application is successful.
- If you are selected as an alternate, you will be notified in June or July.