Because you’re busy, you need a way to keep up with your Vanguard investments and financial news—while you’re on the go.

The first step toward connecting with Vanguard online is to register for account access at vanguard.com/retirementplans.

You will need your plan number, which you can find on your account statement. If you also have an individual account with Vanguard, you’ll need that account number.

Once you’re logged on, you can:

- Check your balance.
- Update personal information.
- Get your plan’s rules and the latest plan news.
- Access statements, confirmations, and tax notices.
Even more ways to stay in touch

With your smartphone or tablet, Vanguard can always be at your fingertips with apps for iPhone®, iPad®, or Android™.

You can also like us on Facebook at facebook.com/vanguard, Twitter at twitter.com/vanguard_group, watch us on YouTube at youtube.com/user/vanguard and circle us on Google+ at google.com/+vanguard.

Interested in what Vanguard executives think about the financial issues of the day? You can find out at vanguardblog.com.

Take advantage of e-delivery

As a registered user, you can also sign up for fast e-delivery of your retirement plan communications, such as statements and confirmations.

Just log on to your account, click My Profile, and change your Mailing Preferences.

When you sign up for e-delivery, Vanguard notifies you by e-mail when your plan communications are available. Then, log on to your secure account at vanguard.com to read the communications—and print them, if you wish.