

BSA Internal Transfer

Carnegie Mellon University

Application for Internal Transfer – Bachelor of Science and Arts

Please deliver completed application to MMCH 107 by March 9, 2012.

The BSA Program is designed for academically and artistically talented students interested in interdisciplinary studies within the Mellon College of Science (MCS) and the College of Fine Arts (CFA). This is a competitive intercollege program that requires an ability to maintain a strong academic performance in both the sciences and the arts. It is expected that candidates for BSA have at least a 3.00 cumulative QPA in coursework prior to entry.

Requesting transfer into the BSA Program is a process of gathering information about the program and carefully evaluating the possibilities in the BSA Program with your academic passions and goals. For specific information regarding coursework, please visit the BSA website: www.cmu.edu/interdisciplinary.

If you are interested in applying for transfer into the BSA Program, please schedule an appointment with a MCS Academic Advisor and a CFA Academic Advisor prior to submitting your application to:
