APPLICATION
Carnegie Mellon University Washington Semester Program
Spring 2013

From embassy headquarters to nongovernmental organizations, think tanks to advocacy organizations, and consulting firms to media outlets, Washington, DC, is a focal point for many international and public policy activities.

Undergraduates from any course of study who would value firsthand policy experience are invited to apply to Carnegie Mellon University’s Washington Semester Program, sponsored by the university’s Center for International Relations and Politics. In this semester-long program, students live, work, and study in Washington, DC, coming into direct contact with political, business, and community leaders and learning about the most pressing policy issues of the day.

The Center for International Relations and Politics will sponsor policy events and forums for CMU students participating in the program to further enrich their experience and enhance their understanding of how Washington functions as a hub of international and public policy decision making.

Required Application Materials

In addition to this application form, applications must include the following in order to be complete:

☐ A one-page essay, explaining how the Washington semester ties into your curricular plans at Carnegie Mellon and how it will contribute to your professional development.
☐ Your current résumé.
☐ Two letters of recommendation (please use the attached forms): ☐ Faculty recommendation: At least one letter should come from a faculty member who has taught you in class. The letter should address your academic performance, ability to work in varied academic settings, ability to work independently, and writing skills. The recommender should also comment, if knowledgeable, on your extracurricular involvement, service, and leadership experience.
   ☐ General recommendation: The second letter of recommendation may be written by a second faculty member or by another referee (such as a supervisor, coach, advisor, or volunteer coordinator) who can speak to how this opportunity complements your intellectual or career interests. The recommender should also comment, if knowledgeable on your extracurricular involvement, service, and leadership experience.
☐ Official transcripts from all undergraduate institutions where you have completed course work. You should request a Carnegie Mellon transcript from the HUB in person or online
