

Subject: International Relations Weekly Newsletter

Date: Friday, April 6, 2007 4:17 PM

From: Laura Hastings <lhasting@andrew.cmu.edu>

To: <lhastings@cmu.edu>

Conversation: International Relations Weekly Newsletter

International Relations Program Newsletter Week of April 6-13, 2007

Events

International Relations students: Please sign up at 242-C Baker Hall if you would like an appointment to discuss your schedule for Fall 2007. Please come prepared!

The U.S. Student Fulbright Program INFO SESSION

Tuesday, April 10, 2007

4:30 - 6:30 pm

Doherty Hall 2210, CMU

STUDENTS - all class levels, all disciplines - Please attend! YOU DON'T WANT TO MISS THIS OPPORTUNITY! The Institute for International Education, from New York, is visiting Pittsburgh to inform you about this prestigious study abroad opportunity (can apply to over 130 different countries). There are many kinds of exciting Fulbright grant opportunities (click on <http://us.fulbrightonline.org/home.html> <<http://us.fulbrightonline.org/home.html>> for more info). Seniors, graduate students, and alumni are eligible to apply in Sept 2007 for the 2008-09 Fulbright program. ALL students from all class levels are invited to the info session - IT IS WISE TO PLAN AHEAD FOR THIS AWARD! We will serve pizza. Please call Judy Zang at 8x1969, or email jzang@cmu.edu if you have any questions.

Panel Discussion--Single Market Panel on Telecommunications

Tuesday, April 10, 2007

4:00 p.m. - 5:30 p.m.

Room 104, Mervis Hall, University of Pittsburgh

A presentation on the telecommunications industry in the context of the U.S. and the European Union will include Professor Martin Weiss of the School of Information Sciences. For more information, contact Michael Deal - (412)

648-1110 mdeal@ucis.pitt.edu

Council on Foreign Relations Academic Call Series

Thursday April 12, 2007

12:00 to 1:00 pm

232 Q Baker Hall (Statistics Department)

The International Relations program invites you to listen to a telephone conference call with Karen Monaghan, the Council's National Intelligence fellow, who will lead a discussion on India's Growing Engagement with Africa. Ms. Monaghan has served as a manager in the CIA's Directorate of Intelligence, overseeing analytic work on trade, finance and energy issues in the Office of transnational Issues. She has also served as acting national intelligence officer for economic and global issues on the National Intelligence Council. She has also served in the department state in a variety of managerial and analytical positions. The program will be moderated by professor Borzutzky. Pizza and beverages will be served

Chernobyl 4-Ever: The Cultural and Health Fallout of a Nuclear Disaster

Friday, April 13, 2007

12:00 pm - 1:30 pm

4217 Wesley W. Posvar Hall, University of Pittsburgh

Sarah Phillips, Department of Anthropology, Indiana University.

For more information, contact Stacey Kronandor - 412-648-7407 crees@pitt.edu

Poverty, Growth, and the Future of Democracy in Latin America

Monday, April 16, 2007

6:30-8:00pm

Posner Boardroom, CMU

Dr. Alejandro Toledo, President of Peru, July 2001 to July 2006, will speak via video teleconference.

Compiled by Laura Hastings