

Global and International Relations Program Newsletter

Week of May 2 – May 9, 2008

In this issue:

IR News

End of the Semester
Congratulations, Graduates!

Other Events

Luncheon/Discussion: “Ethical Realism: A 21st Century Foreign Policy” (5/6)

Announcements

International Development Career Fair (Washington DC)

IR NEWS

End of the Semester

As the semester draws to a close, this will be our last newsletter of the academic year. Best of luck to all students on your exams and final assignments. We wish everyone a relaxing and/or productive summer, and look forward to reconnecting in the fall!

Congratulations, Graduates!

Approximately 20 students expect to graduate this spring or summer with an additional major or minor in International Relations. Congratulations to all of our graduating seniors, and best of luck with whatever awaits you after graduation!

OTHER EVENTS

Luncheon/Discussion: “Ethical Realism: A 21st Century Foreign Policy”

Tuesday, May 6, 2008

12:00pm – 1:45pm

The Duquesne Club, Main Dining Room, 325 Sixth Avenue, Downtown Pittsburgh

In Cooperation with the American Council on Germany Pittsburgh Eric M. Warburg Chapter; sponsored by the Carnegie Bosch Institute.

America faces a world more complicated than ever before. Our foreign policy should reflect the times, recognizing our real strengths and weaknesses and the changing dynamics around us. As we move forward into the 21st century and into a new presidency, what might this foreign policy strategy look like? What values would it reflect? What is the way forward?

Dr. John Hulsman is co-author — with Anatol Lieven — of Ethical Realism: A Vision for America’s Role in the World. Previously Senior Fellow at the Heritage Foundation, he was appointed in 2006 as the first Alfred von Oppenheim Scholar in the newly founded Alfred von Oppenheim Centre for European Studies at the German Council on Foreign Relations in Berlin.

He is contributing editor to National Interest and a frequent commentator in print and broadcast media. He holds an M.A. in Modern History and a Ph.D. in International Relations from the University of St. Andrews.

For details or to register, visit <http://www.worldaffairspittsburgh.org/programs.jsp>.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

International Development Career Fair (Washington DC)

Wednesday, May 7, 2008

1:00pm - 7:00pm

Academy for Educational Development, 1825 Connecticut Avenue, N.W. Washington, DC

The Washington D.C. Chapter of the Society for International Development is pleased to announce its Ninth Annual Career Fair.

The Career Fair will feature:

- A Plenary Panel featuring development professionals discussing career opportunities and major trends in the field of international development
- Breakout Panels for mid-level and entry-level professionals
- An Exhibitors' Fair where attendees may meet and network with potential employers
- Networking reception and informal discussion with senior recruiters

Please click here for the agenda and for registration.

The Fair will provide opportunities for entry-level professionals and mid-level professionals to advance their careers. Graduating college students and recent graduates are encouraged to attend to learn more about the industry.

The Career Fair will be an excellent opportunity to network and learn more about jobs in the field of international development. Last year's Fair featured diverse exhibitors from various sectors of international development, including the American Red Cross, Chemonics International, the Shaw Group, the Peace Corps, USAID Global Development Alliance, and many others.

The Career Fair has reached capacity in previous years. Please register early to guarantee your participation.

Compiled by Traci Sebastian, Global and International Relations Program.

To subscribe, unsubscribe, or submit items, email traci@andrew.cmu.edu.