Alumni

Data Source:

The data used for the alumni section of this book are from the university's alumni database as of July 1, 2013.

Other Sources:

Carnegie Mellon Alumni Association Data: Office of Alumni Relations and Annual Giving

Definitions:

Alumni: Defined as (a) all persons who have been admitted to any school or college of Carnegie Institute of Technology or Carnegie Mellon University, who have completed at least one semester of classes in a degree program, and who have left the University in good standing and (b) all persons who have received an Honorary Degree from the University.

Active: Defined as all alumni who maintain a current postal or e-mail address

E-mail Only: Indicates that the only contact information available is e-mail address

Alumni Interest Group: Any group of Carnegie Mellon alumni who share a common interest or bond and who desire to affiliate with each other as a subgroup of the Carnegie Mellon Alumni Association. Alumni Interest Groups are formed around at least one of the following criteria:

Former membership in an officially recognized student organization

A shared personal characteristic (such as ethnicity, cultural background, or religion)

A shared postgraduate professional experience (such as entrepreneurs, lawyers, doctors, etc.)

Chapter: Historically, "clan" was chosen to describe the regional alumni groups of the Carnegie Mellon Alumni Association, reflecting the Scottish heritage of Andrew Carnegie. In recent years, "chapter" is used with more frequency as new groups are formed. For ease of reference, "chapter" refers to both clans and chapters.

Honorary Alumni: For degree level, honorary alumni are counted within the "Non-Grad/Certificate" category; for degree college and preferred degree level, honorary alumni are within the "Other/Honorary" category

Office of Alumni Relations and Annual Giving

Mission: Cultivating a culture of alma mater within Carnegie Mellon University's global community

Strategic Objectives (FY14-FY16)

- 1) Increase engagement of alumni, students, parents, faculty/staff and others as evidenced by traditional measures of involvement, rate of giving, and reporting of current contact information.
- 2) Identify and develop ways to make the existing CMU network useful and relevant to its members over the next three years.
- 3) Provide consistent and dynamic communications and evaluate annually.
- 4) Create an office environment that is open to creativity, risk-taking, and professional development, and measure internal improvement and external reputation on a quarterly basis.

Annual Giving

In addition to engaging members of the CMU global community as volunteers, event participants, and CMU ambassadors, the Office of Alumni Relations and Annual Giving strives to increase annual financial support from our alumni, parents, faculty, staff, friends, and students. We seek both unrestricted gifts to the Carnegie Mellon Fund (which support the university's most pressing needs, as determined by the administration) and restricted gifts to a variety of campus departments and programs.

Alumni Association Board (AAB)

Twenty-three Voting Members:

Twenty Directors – five elected each year for non-renewable four-year terms

Three Alumni Officers serving two-year terms each – President, Immediate Past President, and President-Elect

One Staff Officer – Associate VP of Alumni Relations and Annual Giving; serves as Secretary to the AAB

Two to three Ex-officio Members – VP for University Advancement, a student representative from the Highland Ambassadors, and a rotating representative from the Andrew Carnegie Society Executive Board

Global Networks

The Carnegie Mellon Global Network is made up of alumni, students, and parents interested in building and maintaining connections with each other and the university. The Global Network is composed of Regional Networks where CMU enthusiasts are meeting around the globe to network, learn, and socialize; and Interest Networks where communities are built around personal characteristics, professional interests, and student organization involvement.

Awards and Recognition

The Carnegie Mellon Alumni Association presents annual awards to recognize the professional achievements of alumni, and to recognize alumni, student, and faculty service.

Online Services

Carnegie Mellon provides online services for alumni and students at <http://www.cmu.edu/alumni>, including an online directory, email forwarding, event calendars and registration, online giving, social media presence, and regional and alumni interest networks web pages.

Reunions

50th and Platinum (beyond the 50th) are celebrated at Ceilidh Weekend in the fall. All other class reunions are celebrated over Spring Carnival and Reunion Weekend using a decade model, where an entire decade is celebrated and the specific class years serve as hosts. Any additional activities beyond what are planned by the office are organized by the volunteer leaders of the reunion class.

Student Programs

The Alumni Association sponsors several programs including, Dinner with 12 Tartans, Real Life Story Series, Student Cèilidh Committee, First-year Student Alumni Association Welcome, Student-alumni social events, and programs during Orientation and Commencement. We also select students to represent Carnegie Mellon University as members of the Highland Ambassador program.
