You are being contacted on behalf of Copyright Compliance Organization and its affiliates ("CCO") because your Internet account was identified as having been used recently to illegally copy and/or distribute the copyrighted CCO motion picture(s) and/or television show(s) listed at the bottom of this letter. This notice provides you with the information you need in order to take immediate action that can prevent serious legal and other consequences. These actions include:

1. Stop downloading or uploading any motion pictures or TV shows owned or distributed by CCO and/or its affiliates without authorization; and
2. Permanently delete from your computer(s) all unauthorized copies you may have already made of such films and/or TV shows.

The illegal downloading and distribution of copyrighted works are serious offenses that carry the risk of substantial monetary damages and, in some cases, criminal prosecution.

Copyright infringement also undoubtedly violates your school's policies governing acceptable use of campus network resources and could lead to serious disciplinary action.

A motion picture industry website, www.respectcopyrights.org, offers step-by-step instructions to ensure that your Internet account is not being used to violate the copyright laws. The site also can point you to an array of legal choices for enjoying movies and TV shows online. You can also learn there how movie theft damages our economy and costs thousands of Americans their jobs, thereby reducing employment opportunities for new graduates.

If, after visiting www.respectcopyrights.org you still have questions, or if you believe you have received this notice in error, you may contact CCO by email at afakeaddress@cco.a.fake.com or by calling (555) 111-1111. Please cite the Reference ID noted at the top of this letter in the subject line of your email or in any voicemail you may leave. You should take immediate action to prevent your Internet account from being used for illegal activities. Today, there are many ways to enjoy movies and TV programs legally.

The undersigned has a good faith belief that use of the CCO Property in the manner described herein is not authorized by CCO, its agent or the law. The information contained in this notification is accurate. Under penalty of perjury, the undersigned is authorized to act on behalf of CCO with respect to this matter.

This letter is not a complete statement of CCO's rights in connection with this matter, and nothing contained herein constitutes an express or implied waiver of any rights, remedies or defense, all of which are expressly reserved.

Sincerely,

Jonathan Q. Smythe, Esq
