Intercultural Communication Center (ICC)

Helps any student who is a nonnative English speaker maximize language skills and cross-cultural understanding so that they can reach their full potential academically and then professionally.

• Non-credit workshops and seminars to improve advanced academic English fluency and cultural understanding.

• ITA training and testing for all nonnative speakers who want to work as teaching assistants.
  (required by CMU policy & PA law)
To get started with ICC services you must attend a Language Support Orientation session.

Several sessions are being offered by ICC

Visit the ICC website for more information:
