Energy Week To Focus on Innovation, Workforce & Culture

Carnegie Mellon boasts more than 130 energy experts, many of whom will tackle issues facing all of us as part of Energy Week, March 27-31.
Softball To Join Roster for CMU Athletics

The university has announced its intention to add softball as an intercollegiate sport, beginning with the 2019 spring season.

"Faces of Identity" Brings 16 Award-Winning Films to Pittsburgh

CMU’s International Film Festival explores identity through different languages and cultures, beginning tonight at 7 p.m. with “I, Daniel Blake.”
CMU Makes Strong Showing at SXSW

South by Southwest seemed like southwest Pennsylvania, thanks to CMU’s presence at the premier entertainment and technology festival in Austin, Texas.

Information Avoidance: How People Select Their Own Reality

CMU's George Loewenstein, Russell Golman and David Hagmann illustrate how people select their own reality by avoiding information that threatens their happiness and wellbeing.

Piper Spotlight
When Tepper School faculty need help, they turn to Bonnie Schultz and her team at Tepper Academic Services.

Calendar Highlights

March 23
Discover & Celebrate Dietrich Day
Margaret Morrison Distinguished Lecture in Women's History
Biking Forum
Managing Art & Social Impact featuring Zeyba Rahman

March 24
Artist Talk & Book Presentation, "Other Russias" by Victoria Lomasko

March 27-31
Energy Week

March 28
The Trump Presidency: Deconstructing the Administrative State & Progressive Policies

March 29
A Radical Solution to the Race Problem by Quayshawn Spencer

March 30
What They Don't Want You To Know
"Art Under Attack" by Erin Thompson

April 1
TEDxCMU

April 2
Concert: Carnegie Mellon Wind Ensemble

April 4
Three Minute Thesis Competition Finals

April 6
Innovation with Impact

Personal Mentions
Jesse Schell was named to the inaugural class of the Higher Education Video Game Alliance Fellows program.

The Engineering Society of Western Pennsylvania honored seniors Maya Holay, Margaret Smith and Stephanie Tian.

Lenore Blum was a panelist at “Mothers of Invention: Celebrating Women Innovators” in Washington, D.C.

Kiron Skinner wrote an opinion piece for the Hoover Institution on ”Moving Forward: The Need for Innovations in Technology and Strategy.”

News Briefs

- Sign Up for 1000plus Day of Service Before March 25
- Volunteers Needed: Take Our Sons & Daughters to Work
- Tests Show CMU Water Supplies Are Safe
- CMU Student Startups Among the "Coolest"
- Students Vie for Campus Superstar, March 26
- Beatstep Cowboys Wins at Intel Game Developers Conference
- ICC Hosts Symposium for ITA Professionals
- Fellowships in Digital Health Now Available
- Looking for a Ride to CMU from the North?

See something? Say something. Help ensure the safety and well-being of the CMU community by calling:

University Police: 412-268-2323
Ethics Hotline: 1-877-700-7050