NeuroHackathon Competitors Race Clock To Study the Brain

The winning team, from Carnegie Mellon University in Qatar, found a characteristic that could point to a gene associated with autism in mice.
Five Years Later: The Raible Military Family Perseveres

This year, Donnella Raible and her children marked their fifth Memorial Day without their husband and father, Lt. Col. Christopher K. Raible.

The Family That Dines Together Stays Together

Two Carnegie Mellon alumnae have come up with a tasty idea to help bridge the nation's political divide.
Doctors Should Be Salaried, Behavioral Economists Say

A new study argues that moving more physicians from fee-for-service to salary-based compensation may benefit not only patients but the physicians themselves.

Staff Spotlight

Ron Ripper helps keep research running smoothly in the Civil and Environmental Engineering Department.

Calendar Highlights

June 6
* Success on Purpose: Creating the Foundation for Your Strategic Vision
June 10
Employee Day at Kennywood Park
June 15
* Digital Accessibility
CMU Credit Union Annual Meeting
June 20
* Creating an Exceptional Customer Service Experience
June 21
Keep It Safe: Preventing Identity Theft
* Professional Development Workshop

Personal Mentions

(L-R) Baruch Fischhoff, Mahadev Satyanarayanan, Jeanne VanBriesen

The Faculty of Humanities at Lund University, Sweden has awarded Baruch Fischhoff with an honorary Ph.D.
Mahadev Satyanarayanan is among the recipients of a Software System Award from the Association for Computing Machinery.
Jeanne VanBriesen has been named to a task force that will study and make recommendations for reducing lead exposure in the Pittsburgh region.

News Briefs
• Waitlist for Parking Enrollment Now Open
• Researchers Develop Gecko-Inspired Gripping System
• Employee Day at Kennywood Park is June 10
• "Tartan Ink" Now Accepting Copy, Print & Ship Orders
• Warner Hall Elevator Out-of-Service Through Early July
• Nominations Now Open for the Andy Awards

See something? Say something. Help ensure the safety and well-being of the CMU community by calling:
University Police: 412-268-2323
Ethics Hotline: 1-877-700-7050

Carnegie Mellon University, 5000 Forbes Avenue, Pittsburgh, PA 15213