

Discover Pittsburgh!

The Pittsburgh Zoo

Lions and tigers and bears...oh my! Check out all the awesome animals at the Pittsburgh Zoo:

<http://pittsburghzoo.org/index.asp>

Hiking in Pittsburgh

Put on your walking shoes and get out into the great outdoors! Here's a link to find some of our local hiking spots:

http://www.localhikes.com/MSA/MSA_6280.asp

Museums

Rather be inside? We have plenty of museums to entertain you for hours of inside fun!

From antient history to contemporary art the Carnegie Museums of Pittsburgh have it all. There are four museums that will engage your curiosity and excite your passion.

<http://www.carnegiemuseums.org/>

Don't miss the chance to honor the Soldiers and Sailors of past and present at the Soldiers and Sailors Museum located right on 5th Avenue in Oakland.

<http://www.soldiersandsailorshall.org/>

Botanical Gardens

Roses are red violets are blue the Botanical Gardens are waiting for you! If you love flowers, the sweet smell of nectar, beautiful butterflies and long walks in enchanting gardens then Phipps Conservatory is calling your name. And it's within walking distance from Pitt and CMU.

<http://www.phipps.conservatory.org/>

Ballparks

Take me out the ball game!

Pittsburgh is known as a sport town and we're proud of it! Whether you're a die hard baseball fan or a laid back spectator PNC Park is the place to be! You can follow every play or relax and enjoy the scenery at the beautiful PNC Park, home of the Pittsburgh Pirates.

<http://pittsburgh.pirates.mlb.com/pit/ballpark/index.jsp>

It might not be football season but you can still get a taste of the always exciting Heinz Field. Its home to Pitt Panther Football and the 2005 Super Bowl Champion Pittsburgh Steelers! Stop by for a tour:

<http://www.steelers.com/article/42030/>

Amusement Parks

Not just a National Historic Landmark, Kennywood Amusement Park is the latest crave in spine-tingling excitement. Plus, it's only a bus ride away.

<http://www.kennywood.com/>

Feeling dry? Then Idlewild and SoakZone are just what the doctor ordered. Get drenched at the SoakZone and then dry off on the thrilling rides over at Idlewild. A funday pass gives you access to both.

<http://www.idlewild.com/>

