CMU Together: A Glimpse at Our Community of Care
Chosky Theater, Purnell Center for the Arts
Do you want to know the best tips on how to thrive as a Carnegie Mellon student?
It starts with getting connected to the vast array of resources we have on campus.
Meeting your Housefellow, utilizing faculty office hours, setting up appointments with Health Services and/or Counseling and Psychological Services, Disability Resources as well as being aware of academic support services are just a few recommendations. Your success and overall well-being at Carnegie Mellon will be enhanced if you know about and utilize the support resources available to you. This session is attended for all CMU families and students, as we welcome you to our intentional community of care, showcase the resources available to you, and help you understand the opportunities and connections you have as a new member to the CMU family.
11 a.m. - 2:30 p.m.
