_Saturday, August 17, 2013_
(Lutherlyn and Carnegie Mellon)

Group activities, competitive team-building and wrap up. Return to campus to prepare for participation in the university orientation for first year students which begins on Sunday, August 18, 2013.

Housing at Lutherlyn

Students will be housed in cabins. Males and females will have separate cabin accommodations. Each cabin accommodates eight people. Each cabin will have 2-3 upper class student counselors, along with 5-6 first year students. Adult staff and professional group facilitators will be assigned to cabins adjacent to the students’ cabins.

Attire for Lutherlyn

Lutherlyn is a traditional campsite. Students should take comfortable, casual clothing suitable for indoor and outdoor activities. This is a camp environment so be aware that there is an abundance of grass, woods and dirt. Each student is limited to one suitcase the size of an airplane carry-on. Keep in mind that it may be warm during the day there is the potential for the weather to be chilly in the evening.

Accommodations for Parents

Carnegie Mellon’s campus is located in the Oakland area. For a complete list of hotels, please refer to the general orientation mailing or the orientation web site:  http://www.studentaffairs.cmu.edu/first-year/orientation/hotel.html
