Postdoctoral Fellows in International Relations

The Institute for Politics and Strategy (IPS) at Carnegie Mellon University invites candidates to apply for teaching postdoctoral fellowship positions in American Politics, Comparative Politics, and International Security.

Postdoctoral fellows will be expected to teach one undergraduate course per semester, complete independent research, and attend IPS sponsored seminars and other events. Postdoctoral fellows are expected to participate actively in the intellectual life of IPS and become involved in Carnegie Mellon’s rich interdisciplinary community.

The postdoctoral fellowship position will run from August 1, 2016, to July 31, 2018. The salary for this position is $45,000 with a $2,500 research and travel budget. This is a full-time, benefits-eligible position.

Preference will be given to applicants who have received their PhD degree between November 30, 2013, and August 31, 2016. The application deadline is 5:00 p.m. EST, on January 29, 2016.

Materials to be submitted:

- Cover letter of one to two pages briefly stating the applicant’s academic background, research agenda, and interest in the program;
- CV;
- Research Statement;
- Teaching Statement (titles and short descriptions of at least two undergraduate courses that the candidate is eligible to teach)
- Two scholarly writing samples;
- Unofficial transcripts from all graduate-level degrees; and
- Contact information for two references.

Please e-mail your application to cmuips@andrew.cmu.edu. Please contact this email address if you have any questions or concerns about the application.
