

Carnegie Mellon University

Music Preparatory School

Summer Strings Camp

ABOUT

Give your child the chance to develop as a musician in a focused, supportive environment. Our 6-Day Summer Strings Camp is specifically for young string players (violin, viola, and cello) ages 8-18. The camp will run June 16th-21st, Monday-Friday 12 pm-5 pm, dress rehearsal/final performance, Saturday 9 am-2 pm. This chamber music focused camp offers the opportunity to refine their skills and experience the artistry of ensemble playing.

GROW, PLAY, PERFORM

Under the guidance of experienced instructors, participants will:

- Collaborate in small and large groups, performing string chamber music repertoire
- Strengthen essential musical skills, including listening, teamwork, and communication
- Participate in daily small group coachings, fun elective classes, performance classes, chamber orchestra rehearsals, and a final performance

APPLY TODAY!

This camp is perfect for young musicians who want to strengthen their abilities, build confidence, and make new friends—all while having a great time!

A short video of a scale and a solo piece is required with the application.

More info available at:

music.cmu.edu/prepschool

Email questions to: cmuprep-stringscamp@cmu.edu

Applications due May 15th

Scan the QR code
above to apply!

Important Info

- Six days: June 16-June 21
- Ages 8-18
- Applications due: May 15th 2025
- Cost: $500 for 6 days

