Time & Location: Tuesdays 12 – 1:20. Alumni Concert Hall
First day of class: August 27
No class: November 5 (Gig Relief)
Last day of class: December 3

Faculty: Monique Mead, Asst. Teaching Professor
Director of Music Entrepreneurship
mmead@andrew.cmu.edu

Office Hours: Thursdays 1:30-3:30 Great Hall, or MM 118 by appointment

Course Description
Most musicians have careers that include freelance work: gigging, teaching, festivals, etc. This course will help you find and create paid work and establish yourself as a reliable professional.

Course objectives
- Articulate what you contribute to the world and why it matters.
- Create a basic portfolio (bio, photos, video, email list, contract, invoice...)
- Establish an organized approach to project management.
- Communicate professionally with a client, including contract negotiation.
- Optimize the setup of your performance space.
- Maximize the reach and return on every “gig.”
- Be creative and flexible in your programming.
- Capture your work with quality video/audio production.
- Practice poise in public speaking and performance.
- Learn networking and interpersonal skills.

Course structure
You will receive a “real gig” and will be responsible for communicating with the client and managing all of the details. The client will request a bio, photo, invoice, and other basic items that you will have created in the first weeks of class.

Class time will be used to refine your portfolio documents, explore revenue streams for freelancers, discuss the progress of your gig, practice professional behavior. Guest speakers will join us at times. As a six-unit course with 80 minutes of class time you should expect to spend at least 3 hours per week on assignments, plus time to travel and perform your gig(s).
Assessment

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Item</th>
<th>% of Grade</th>
<th>Due</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Attendance &amp; Participation</td>
<td>30%</td>
<td>Weekly</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Portfolio</td>
<td>30%</td>
<td>Weekly, as announced</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Reading and Assignments</td>
<td>30%</td>
<td>Weekly, as announced</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Client Communication and Performance</td>
<td>10%</td>
<td>By November 20</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

*Evaluation sheet for this item is included at the end of the syllabus.
There are no final exams or papers due for this class.

Assessment Details

ATTENDANCE & PARTICIPATION 30%
Your presence as an active, engaged class member is essential, as this is an experience-based class. Each week you will earn one point for on time attendance, ½ point for tardiness, and one point for active participation. This includes classroom discussions on readings, skills drills, and guest introductions.

In the interest of practicing professionalism, plan to show up a few minutes early so that we can begin class on time. If you need to miss a class for any reason, send a brief e-mail informing me of your absence by the beginning of class. You may miss up to two classes without affecting your grade.

PORTFOLIO 30%
You’ll be adding documents to your professional portfolio nearly every week. By the end of the semester, it should include:
1. Your WHY statement
2. Short/long bio
3. Email signature
4. Thank you note
5. Business card or publicity card
6. Concert flyer and program
7. Contract
8. Invoice
9. Endorsements
10. Fan list

Your Portfolio resides on the “Freelance Musician” Google Drive. You will be responsible for uploading your documents by the due dates. Documents completed on time will receive up to 4 points. Late submissions lose one point per week.

CLIENT COMMUNICATION AND PERFORMANCE 10%
At the beginning of the semester you will choose a performance opportunity from the “Gig List”. You may perform solo or ask other students to join you, but you alone will manage the emails with the client, negotiate the details, and follow up. We will practice all of these steps in class so that you feel comfortable communicating via email and in person.
You will be evaluated by the client on your communication, stage presence, and performance, as outlined in the Evaluation Form at the end of this syllabus.

Since you are performing for class credit, you will not receive a fee for this performance. However, you may graciously accept a travel stipend or any gratuities from the client. To compensate for the out-of-class time for your gig travel and performance, we will not hold class on October 1.

Since your email chain serves as the basis for your grade for client communication, please always copy me and save the chain for grading at the end of the semester. Excellent communication receives a total of 15 points.

READING AND ASSIGNMENTS 10%
Assignments will include reflections based on readings, guest speaker introductions, and gig-related work including client research, follow up, and video documentation.

FINAL GRADE
Your final grade will appear as a letter grade according to the following scale:
90-100% = A; 80-89% = B; 70-79% = C; 70-79% = D; under 60% = R (failing grade)

GETTING HELP
Coaching and Consultation: I expect you to meet with me at least twice during the semester to review your portfolio and discuss your coursework. Sign up for office hours during class or send me an email. Office hours are by appointment in MM 118.

TEXTBOOKS
“The Inner Voice,” Renée Fleming. AND
“Beyond Talent: Creating a Successful Career in Music,” Angela Beeching
OR “The Savvy Musician,” David Cutler.

POLICIES
Cell Phones, Laptops, and Related Technology: In an effort to practice professionalism, laptops should be open only when needed for class activities. Please silence your cell phone and resist the urge to text during class.

LAST BUT NOT LEAST
Your wellbeing as a person is very important to me. Please, take care of yourself. Do your best to maintain a healthy lifestyle this semester by eating well, exercising, avoiding drugs and alcohol, getting enough sleep and taking some time to relax. This will help you achieve your goals and cope with stress.

All of us benefit from support during times of struggle. You are not alone. There are many helpful resources available on campus and an important part of the college experience is learning how to ask for help. Asking for support sooner rather than later is often helpful. If you or anyone you know experiences any academic stress, difficult life events, or feelings like anxiety or depression, we strongly encourage you to seek support. Counseling and Psychological Services (CaPS) is here to help: call 412-268-2922 and visit their website at http://www.cmu.edu/counseling/. Consider reaching out to a friend, faculty or family member you trust for help getting connected to support that can help.
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Date</th>
<th>Class Topic &amp; Skill Drill</th>
<th>Assignments Due by midnight on Friday</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| August 27  | Course Introduction
Introduce Yourself                                                  | Purchase Books
Exercise: People in Business                                              |
| September 3| Start with Why
Why Discovery Exercise                                                   |
| September 10| Why Discovery
Autographs, Photos                                                   | Why Statement Draft
3 Lists for Bio
Choose 2 YouTube videos                                                 |
| September 17| Video Recording/Editing
(Ivan Plazacic)
Musician Bio & Résumé
(Anne Marie DeGeorge)                                                      | Bio long/short                                                           |
| September 24| Gigs: Nailing the Nitty Gritty
Names—remember?                                                       | Email Signature Endorsements                                              |
| October 1  | Graphic Design
(Melissa Neely)                                                      | Flyer Design, Program Design                                               |
| October 8  | Money Talk
Receiving/Giving Payment and Business Card                            | Invoice
Business Card Contract                                                  |
| October 15 | Networking: It’s Who You Know
Table Etiquette, Hosts and Toasts                                     | Professional Contact List
Thank You Note                                                            |
| October 22 | Gig Workshop                                                      |                                                                         |
| October 29 | Freelance entrepreneur: Don’t wait, create!                          |                                                                         |
| November 5 | Gig Relief Week, No Class                                           |                                                                         |
| November 12| Experience Design
Logistics, Programming                                               | Read Fleming: Chapters 1-3                                               |
| November 19| Body Language/Public Speaking                                       | Read Fleming: Chapters 4-6                                               |
| November 26| Adding Value
Express Gratitude                                                   | Read Fleming: Chapters 7-10                                              |
| December 3 | Asking for Money                                                   | Read Fleming: Chapters 11-end                                             |
| December 10| HAVE A GREAT WINTER BREAK!                                         | Gig Evaluation and Documentation Due                                      |
Event Evaluation

Musician’s Name: ________________________________________________

Date of Event: _______________  Venue: ____________________________

Name of Client: ________________ Title: _____________________________

Client email: ______________________ Phone: _______________________

To client: Please evaluate the performer on the following points, commenting below for clarification.

E=excellent  S=satisfactory  N= needs attention

Interpersonal skills
1. The musician communicated clearly and courteously in setting up and scheduling the event, E  S  N
2. was prompt in returning phone calls and email, E  S  N
3. arrived at least 20 minutes prior to performance, E  S  N
4. was friendly and courteous with staff, E  S  N
5. provided contact information for future reference.

Programming
6. Musical selections were appealing. E  S  N
7. Speaking points were relevant to audience. E  S  N
8. Pacing kept interest of audience. E  S  N
9. Program did not exceed allotted time. E  S  N

Stage Presence
10. Presence commanded attention. E  S  N
11. Speech was clear and articulate. E  S  N
12. Attire and grooming was attractive. E  S  N
13. Performance was engaging. E  S  N
14. The unexpected was handled gracefully. E  S  N

Comments:

__________________________________________

Signature of Client

__________________________________________

Date