

Nomination: Kathy Zhang

Dan Martin, Dean, College of Fine Arts

Kathy is completing her degree in Environmental and Sustainability Studies and Art, and is one of our Andrew Carnegie Scholars for this year. She's been active in on-campus sustainability issues including serving as both a Housing Sustainability Assistant and a Housing Sustainability Lead, as well as being Advocacy Chair for the campus Sustainable Earth Club.

In addition, she held an internship with Grounded Strategies, a Pittsburgh organization addressing land use in the city, and has been the Community Outreach Coordinator for WaterWalks, a student-led and community-based interdisciplinary project focused on Pittsburgh's water issues. Kathy is deeply committed to the Pittsburgh community and already plans to remain in the city to continue her work on environmental issues.
