

Apple App Store and Google Play (US ONLY)

The UCO has reviewed the terms and conditions for many smartphone and tablet apps available on the Apple App Store and Google Play, and has determined that UCO review is not required for purchase as long as the following conditions are met:

The app will not be used to record or store any data that is restricted by the Family Education Rights Privacy Act known as “FERPA” (see <http://www.cmu.edu/hub/ferpa.html>) or the University Student Privacy Policy (<http://www.cmu.edu/policies/student-and-student-life/privacy-rights-students.html>).

The app will not be used to record or store any data that is restricted by HIPAA (see <http://www.cmu.edu/policies/information-technology/hipaa.html>)

The app will not be used to record or store any data that is classified as Private or Restricted as defined by ISO: <http://www.cmu.edu/iso/governance/guidelines/dataclassification.html>.

EXCEPTIONS:

This approval does not apply to desktop apps.

The approval does not apply to CMU Programs or Campuses outside of the United States. Please submit any approval request to university-contracts@andrew.cmu.edu.

Assuming the conditions above have been met and none of the above exceptions apply, please consider this document as approval.

Any other software or software as a service requests should be forwarded to university-contracts@andrew.cmu.edu.
