

Application

CaPS utilizes the APPI application system through APPIC (www.appic.org) and accepts AAPI Online Application. The application deadline for the internship program is November, 15th, 2021. Our APPIC membership number is 2279.

Required Experiences:

- 400 direct doctoral intervention hours for psychotherapy
- passed comprehensive exams
- curiosity and interests in learning about: (a) UCC works, (b) depth-oriented theory and practices, and (c) social justice, diversity, equity, and inclusion topics

Applying through APPIC Portal

1. Completed AAPI applications
2. Cover letter
3. All graduate courses transcripts
4. Curriculum Vita
5. Three letters of reference: at least two from recent clinical supervisors

Application deadline: 11/15/2021

*CMU CaPS adheres to the procedures established by the Association of Psychology Postdoctoral and Internship Centers (APPIC) for notifying candidates. Internship offers will be coordinated through the APPIC Internship Matching Program. This internship site agrees to abide by the APPIC policy that no person at this training facility will solicit, accept or use any ranking related information from any intern applicant.

A program for candidates with specific interests in the intersection of University Counseling Center work, depth oriented psychotherapy, and social justice orientation.

Carnegie Mellon University

Doctoral Internship in Health Service Psychology

CaPS

Carnegie Mellon University

- More than 12,000 students and 5,000 faculty and staff
- Recognized for arts and technology programs, including Business Administration, Computer Science, Engineering, Fine Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences, Public Policy & Information Systems, and Science

For more information:

<https://www.cmu.edu/counseling/professional-training/pre-doctoral-psych-interns.html>

Please direct application inquiries to:
Mengchun Chiang, PhD
mengchun@andrew.cmu.edu

Based on Fall 2018 enrollment data, 52% of students are graduate students, 43% identified as international, 2.89% identified as black only, 1.24% identified as Hispanic only, 4.74% identified as multiracial (minority), 1.56% identified as multiracial (majority), 17.98% identified as Asian only, and 22.99% identified as white only. Three students identified as American Indian only, and four students identified as Pacific Islanders only.

Counseling and Psychological Services

- Primary mental health support at CMU
- Provide comprehensive psychological services to the campus community
- Direct clinical services for students: triage, consultation, case management, short-term individual psychotherapy, group therapy
- Support services for faculty, staff and everyone in the CMU community: consultation, outreach, & training

Health Service Psychology Internship Training

- Full-year, full time training opportunity accruing 2000 training hours.
- Our training model emphasizes:
 1. attending to and supporting the intern's developmental needs;
 2. developing the intern's professional and personal identities and self-awareness
 3. integrating practice, clinical theory, and community impact that is grounded in social justice value

Training Seminars

- Decolonizing Critical Consciousness
- Didactic Seminar
- Trainee Clinical Discussion Group
- Supervision Seminar
- Trauma Seminar
- Case Conference
- Psychiatric Rounds

Clinical Supervision

- Individual supervision
- Supervision for group therapy
- Triage, consultation, and case management supervision
- Supervision of peer supervision