

B.A. in Professional Writing

		Semester	Grade
One Survey of Forms:
Fiction	_____ 76-260	_____	_____
Creative Nonfiction	_____ 76-261	_____	_____
Nonfiction	_____ 76-262	_____	_____
Poetry	_____ 76-265	_____	_____
Screenwriting	_____ 76-269	_____	_____

Introduction to Professional & Technical Writing

_____ 76-271	_____	_____
--------------	-------	-------

Style

_____ 76-390	_____	_____
--------------	-------	-------

Topics in Rhetoric: Argument

_____ 76-373	_____	_____
--------------	-------	-------

Rhetoric/Language Studies Requirement

One course from Rhetoric options designated by the department that focuses on the relationships between language, text structure, and meaning.

_____ 76 - _____	_____	_____
------------------	-------	-------

Four Advanced Writing/Rhetoric Courses

Focus on foundation skills and specialties within professional writing.

_____ 76 - _____	_____	_____
------------------	-------	-------

_____ 76 - _____	_____	_____
------------------	-------	-------

_____ 76 - _____	_____	_____
------------------	-------	-------

_____ 76 - _____	_____	_____
------------------	-------	-------

English Electives

Three courses from the department's offerings. Two must be courses that focus on the relationships between texts and their cultural and historical contexts. Only one may be at the 200 level. 76-270, 76-271, and 76-272 may not count as English Electives for credit toward the degree.

_____ 76 - _____	_____	_____
------------------	-------	-------

_____ 76 - _____	_____	_____
------------------	-------	-------

_____ 76 - _____	_____	_____
------------------	-------	-------