Predatory Data:

Eugenics in Big Tech & Feminist Solidarities for an Independent Future

With Anita Say Chan

Associate Professor in the School of Information Sciences & Department of Media & Cinema Studies at the University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign

The insidious legacy of eugenics lives on in the techno-surveillance, and algorithmic authoritarianism, and data-driven discrimination of Big Tech. This talk — drawn from her recent book, Predatory Data — explains how it happened & how to fight back.
