

Arabic Studies Minor Requirements

Required Units: 54-60

Prerequisites

The completion of two Elementary Arabic courses (at the 100-level) at CMU or the equivalent to those courses that can be determined at CMU via internal placement test scores.

Curricular requirements (54-60 units)

1. Foundational Courses in Arabic Studies (5 courses, 45-51 units)
 - a. 82-211 Intermediate Arabic 1
 - b. 82-212 Intermediate Arabic 2
 - c. 82-311 Advanced Arabic 1
 - d. 82-312 Advanced Arabic 2
 - e. 82-411/412/511/512 (all repeatable with new topics)

2. Elective (1 course, 9 units)

In consultation with the advisor, choose one additional course taught in either Arabic or English, for example, an additional 400-/500-level course in Arabic Studies, 82-215/82-217, or the Languages, Cultures & Applied Linguistics Seminar.

Curricular clarifications:

- Students who place out of one or two intermediate level courses must take additional courses at a higher level to complete the required number of courses.
- Students may double count up to two courses taken for the Arabic Studies minor to fulfill the requirements of other majors, minors and programs. Double counting with General Education requirements is unlimited.
- Ideally, students will complete 300-level courses before moving on to the 400-level. However, there will be flexibility based upon scheduled offerings.
- At least one course at the 400- or 500-level must be completed for the minor.
- All 400- and 500-level courses are repeatable with new topics.
- Study abroad is always recommended.
