The Department of Modern Languages
The Minor in Russian Studies

Faculty Advisor
Dr. Tatyana Gershkovich, Assistant Professor of Russian Studies
(tgershko@andrew.cmu.edu)

Required Units: 57

The minor in Russian Studies is an interdepartmental, interdisciplinary minor jointly administered by the Departments of History and Modern Languages. Students are asked to fulfill requirements in history and in language and culture. Additionally, students are strongly encouraged to study abroad in Russia or other parts of the Russian-speaking world. Not only does study abroad offer students a memorable and formative experience of cultural immersion, it also helps them advance to their highest possible levels of linguistic and cultural competence by the time they graduate.

Students may double count one course taken for the Russian Studies minor that is also being used to fulfill the requirements of other majors, minors, and programs.

1. Core Courses in Russian 36 units
Complete three language courses.
82-191 Elementary Russian I
82-192 Elementary Russian II
82-291 Intermediate Russian I

N.B. Students with native or near-native proficiency in Russian or with prior study at the elementary or intermediate level may begin language study at a higher level, based on consultation with the major advisor. Students placing higher will still need to complete a minimum of 36 units, though they may do this by adding 3-unit language enrichment credits to content-based courses.

2. Core Courses in Modern Languages 12 units
Complete one course.
82-292 Intermediate Russian II
82-294 19th-Century Russian Masterpieces
82-295 20th-Century Russian Masterpieces

These 9 unit content-based courses are taught in English plus 3 units of content-based study in Russian.

3. Core Courses in History 9 units
Complete one course.
79-265 Russian History: From the First to the Last Czar
79-266 Russian History: From Communism to Capitalism

Highly Recommended Opportunities for Minors

Study Abroad
Students are strongly encouraged to spend a semester or summer in Russia through an approved exchange program. Consult with your advisor and the Office of International Education (OIE) about possible options. Many exchange programs offer instruction at internationally recognized universities in Russian language, history, literature, and culture. They also offer travel to ancient sites and cities, visits to museums, palaces, exhibitions, and monuments, and the opportunity to live with a Russian host family. Scholarship opportunities are available.

Faculty Exchange Program
In 1993, the College of Humanities and Social Sciences at CMU initiated a faculty exchange program with the Russian State University of the Humanities (RGGU), one of the foremost universities in Russia, located in Moscow. Carnegie Mellon has hosted faculty members from RGGU specializing in history, language, and philosophy. These professors have joined our departments for a semester, offering unique courses on subjects not generally available to our students. Faculty members from Carnegie Mellon have visited Moscow, using the RGGU exchange to pursue archival research, attend conferences, and collaborate on common projects. The exchange offers students an opportunity to study language from native speakers, gain exposure to different perspectives on history and politics, and gather firsthand knowledge about recent developments in Russia. In addition, the exchange can provide important contacts for students interested in pursuing careers abroad.
