Informal Conversations On Research
presented by the Department of Modern Languages and History

Tatyana Gershkovich (Assistant Professor of Russian Studies) will discuss Beyond the Ant Brotherhood, her digital project to create dynamic timelines of Leo Tolstoy’s life and works.

Christopher Phillips (Assistant Professor of History) will discuss his similarly public-facing digital project entitled The Carnegie Mellon Encyclopedia of Science History.

Presenting their projects side by side, they will aim to illustrate some of the possibilities and limitations of digital tools as a means to pursue humanistic research.
