

HISTORY

Good Courses for Exploring History

- 79-377 Food, Culture, Power: A History of Eating
- 79-245 Capitalism and Individualism in American Culture
- 79-331 Body Politics: Women and Health in America

MAJORS

- B.A. in Social & Political History
- B.S. in Social & Political History
- B.A. in Global Studies
- B.A. in Ethics, History, & Public Policy (Joint with the Philosophy Department)
- B.S. in Ethics, History, & Public Policy (Joint with the Philosophy Department)

Minors

- African & African Amer. Studies*
- Anthropology
- Religious Studies*
- Science, Technology & Society*
- Social & Political History

*indicates an interdepartmental minor*

Career Opportunities

Here are just a few things that graduates from the History Department have gone on to:

- Jobs at companies like Google, PNC, Deloitte and more.
- Positions at U.S. State Department, Peace Corps and in education.
- Graduate schools such as Harvard Law, Duke University, Johns Hopkins and others.

Senior Capstone

All students in the social & political history and global studies majors take a senior capstone course that involves writing an original research paper on a topic of their choice.

Fun Fact!

More than two-thirds of our majors spend a summer or semester studying abroad, everywhere from Chile to China.

Carnegie Mellon University
Dietrich College of Humanities and Social Sciences

CONTACT:
Andrew Ramey aramey@andrew.cmu.edu
412-268-7906

www.cmu.edu/dietrich/history