

PHILOSOPHY

MAJORS

- B.A. Philosophy
- B.A. Linguistics
- B.S. Logic & Computation
- B.A. Ethics, History & Public Policy (Joint with the History Department)
- B.S. Ethics, History & Public Policy (Joint with the History Department)

Minors

- Philosophy
- Linguistics
- Logic & Computation
- Ethics

Good Courses for Exploring Philosophy

- 80-100 Intro to Philosophy
- 80-130 Intro to Ethics
- 80-210 Logic & Proofs
- 80-180 Nature of Language

Philosophy Research Projects

- Medical ethics research supervised by a physician at UPMC
- Computational photography
- Pittsburgh City Council research on:
 - Ethics and Autonomous Vehicles
 - Gentrification
 - Decriminalization of Marijuana
 - City Surveillance Policy

Internship Opportunities

Students have secured internships at many organizations and companies, like:

- Facebook
- Office of U.S. Senator Bob Casey
- The Carey Group
- Google
- New York County District Attorney's Office
- Office of U.S. Senator Kristen Gillibrand

Fun Fact!

Andrew Robb, who received his degree in ethics, history and public policy in 2011, was the first Carnegie Mellon student to intern at the U.S. Supreme Court.

Carnegie Mellon University
Dietrich College of Humanities and Social Sciences

CONTACT:
Correy Dandoy correy@cmu.edu
412-268-3704

www.cmu.edu/dietrich/philosophy