

Dietrich's Community Engagement Fellowship Program will provide you with the opportunity to connect your academic coursework and professional goals with community leadership and social good.

Students in the program will have special access to meaningful courses, leadership workshops, networking opportunities with community leaders, and grants to receive financial support while engaging with the community through internships, projects, research or study abroad.

Below you will find information about the program's process and timeline. Any questions can be directed to director of experiential learning, Kim Piatt at kpiatt@andrew.cmu.edu

ELIGIBILITY

- The program is open to any undergraduate students with a primary major in Dietrich College as well as BHA students.
- Students from any class level are eligible to apply but students must not be planning to graduate prior to May 2025 so that they have time to complete the entire fellowship.
- Students applying for the cohort beginning Fall 2023 must be able to register for 66-148: Preparing for Community Engagement worth 3 units taking place on Fridays from 9:30am - 10:50am. When applying for the program, please put yourself on the waitlist for 66-148.
- Fellows must be in good academic standing, meaning they cannot be on academic probation at the time of application.
