

Release #104 introduced the ability for S3 users to view student responses to the questions that have been asked of them through their SIO. R104 also added each student's self-reported time zone information to course rosters, to assist with course, final exam, advising, and office hour planning.

New users are encouraged to review the S3 QuickStart Guide and the Web Tutorial section for basic instructions.

Release Highlights

Cross-Cutting

- Introduced the ability for S3 users to view student responses to the questions that have been asked of them through Student Information Online (SIO).
