

Release #128 made modifications to the infrastructure and interface that is used in S3 to assign authorization to S3 users to increase accessibility, user experience, and data integrity

New users are encouraged to review the S3 QuickStart Guide and the Web Tutorial section for basic instructions.

Release Highlights

Cross Cutting

- To increase accessibility, user experience, and data integrity, modifications were made to the infrastructure and interface that is used in S3 to assign authorization to S3 users

Registrar

- Established functionality that will be activated in the future to be used for assigning advisors to list of students
- Made minor modifications to the bulk registration functionality introduced in the previous release

Student Accounts

- Corrected an error that occurred when releasing an electronic refund for a student that does not have a first name

Coming in the Next Six Months...

- The ability for Qatar students to add non-US bank accounts in SIO
- The ability for students to have more than one academic affiliation

Contact Information

Chris Nolin, Director of Enrollment Systems – 412.268.8137, cnolin@andrew.cmu.edu