Release #81 introduced the long-awaited Multiple Advisors feature! Academic users may now assign multiple advisors per semester to students, as well as separate advisors for additional majors and/or minors. Students are able to view these new advisors in SIO.

New users are encouraged to reference the S3 QuickStart Guide and the Web Tutorial section for basic “how to” instructions.

Release Highlights

Cross-Cutting
- User permissions re-design: The permissions link now displays a clear and readable description of each user’s permissions.
- Increased functionality for the HUB’s Traffic Tracker, allowing HUB users to see each student’s contact history.

Registrar’s Office
- Multiple Advisors: Introduced the ability to assign multiple advisors to each student per semester. Undeclared students are able to be assigned up to two advisors per semester. Students with a degree declared can have up to three academic advisors per degree, plus one advisor per additional major and/or minor.
- Advising Roster has been enhanced to include each type of advisee (including additional majors and minors) and a “My Advisor Type” column has been added.
- Introduced a new PhD academic calendar, in preparation for the upcoming Drop Vouchers work.
- Fixed a defect that set a student’s graduation status to “potential” when a new additional major and/or minor was added or deleted from a student’s degree.

Student Accounts
- Updated the links in student invoices to direct students to the proper page.
- Improved functionality on the Advanced Search and Results Management reporting tool.

Coming in the Next Six Months...

- The ability for Undergraduate and Master’s level students to drop a course after the official Drop deadline, using Drop Vouchers.
- Continued new development and screen enhancements for the Office of Undergraduate Admission, Student Accounts Office, and the University Registrar’s Office.
- Development is underway to bring mobile-friendly functionality to Student Information Online (SIO) later this year.
