Meeting ID: 952 6452 0420 Passcode: 244895
Booth #15 - Family Care Initiatives and CareLink

Family Care Initiatives
The Office of Human Resources (OHR) would like to highlight our resources to support the families of our graduate students. The following programming and resources are currently available to CMU staff, faculty, and graduate students.

- The Concierge Service - Through the Concierge Service, any CMU-affiliated family can get personalized, one-on-one assistance on various dependent care related topics, including child care and elder care.
- Care@work – All CMU faculty, staff, and graduate students are able to access a free premium membership to Care.com. They can use this membership to find nannies, form learning pods, find elder care, find help with housekeeping, and even access 30 emergency back-up care days.
- Family and Child Care Resources – This newly updated webpage features information, unique educational content, and resources for an array of dependent care related topics.

CareLink
In addition to the resources already mentioned, OHR supports the online marketplace called CareLink which is available to all CMU community members including graduate and undergraduate students. This online marketplace allows members of the CMU community to both post jobs and look for jobs. For parents, this can mean finding a babysitter or nanny, joining learning pods, or connecting with virtual tutors to provide some added enrichment. For others, this could mean earning some money by sharing your time or talent with other community members in need of your services.
