

Carnegie Mellon University
Application for Religious Belief/Strong Moral or Ethical Conviction
Exemption from COVID-19 Booster Vaccination

Name: _____
(Print Last, First, Middle)

Affiliation (Faculty / Staff):

Andrew ID (If applicable):

Email Address:

Phone Number:

Instructions:

Please complete this application, and submit the completed form to employeeaccess@andrew.cmu.edu. The personal information that you provide on this form will be kept confidential. Your application will be reviewed, and you will receive a message from Human Resources notifying you of the decision. If your request is granted, you will be marked as compliant with the university's vaccination registration requirement.

However, you will be required to comply with any applicable COVID-19 mitigation protocols for individuals who are not fully vaccinated.

Attestation:

By signing this application, I am requesting a religious belief/strong moral or ethical conviction exemption from a booster vaccination for COVID-19 required by Carnegie Mellon University ("CMU") for faculty and staff.

By signing this application, I attest that:

- I adhere to a religious belief whose teachings are opposed to such immunizations OR hold a strong moral or ethical conviction like a religious belief that is opposed to such immunizations.
- I understand that, for the safety of the campus community, I will be required to comply with CMU's COVID-19 mitigation protocols.

Please describe your religious belief/moral or ethical conviction that is contrary to a booster vaccination:

My electronic signature indicates that the information I am providing in completing this form accurately reflects my sincerely held religious belief/moral or ethical conviction.

_____ Date: _____
Printed Name

_____ Date: _____
Printed Name of Parent/Legal Guardian (if under age of 18)