

Tutoring Resources for Families

Gwen's Girls Academic Support Initiative

This free virtual tutoring service is available to Pittsburgh area students grades K-12. The service runs through the academic year, with group sessions for grades offered Monday through Friday from 9-11 a.m. and individual sessions from 9 a.m.-5 p.m.

Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh Homework Help & Remote Learning Support

The Carnegie Library has a partnership with Tutor.com that offers live homework help from noon until midnight every day for students in kindergarten through college. You will need a library card to access this service.

Grade Potential Tutoring

This service matches you with a tutor in your area for either virtual or in-home support. There are fees associated with this service.

Mathnasium of Squirrel Hill

Mathnasium specializes in virtual and in-person math support for students in grades 2-12. There are fees associated with this service.

Learn to Be

This nonprofit provides one-on-one online tutoring with a "pay if you choose" model. Prior to receiving services, you must complete an enrollment form.

Etutorworld

This service provides virtual tutoring sessions in addition to specialized worksheets and test prep packages. There are a variety of pricing models based on the services you choose.

Khan Academy

While this nonprofit does not offer live tutoring sessions, it hosts a wealth of free learning materials and resources, including distance learning tips for parents.

Keftutoring

This Pittsburgh-based private tutoring company has worked with students in many local public and private schools. Keftutoring is a fee-based service that provides one-on-one customized tutoring based on student and family needs.

Carnegie Mellon University

Human Resources