The Office of Human Resources (OHR) is pleased to offer a variety of courses and training programs to faculty and staff to help facilitate growth and development opportunities for all employees. This training catalog serves to inform CMU employees of some of the ever-expanding development opportunities that are available to assist with skills development and career growth in the present and into the future.

OHR’s Learning and Development team offers a mix of training programs that covers human resource systems and processes, items related to compliance, as well as programs designed to help employees develop skills to enhance job performance and become better managers and supervisors.

A variety of training formats are typically available to provide flexibility to suit learning preferences and schedules of individuals; however, the current pandemic has required recent training sessions to adapt to a virtual format. The course and program descriptions provide highlights and use icons to quickly allow you to see the delivery format and/or the campus location where they are offered.

Registration for many courses and classes are available via FocusU, CMU’s employee training portal, while others require a nomination process. For more about the training and offerings, please contact the OHR Learning and Development team at: professionaldevelopment@andrew.cmu.edu.
LEAN SIX SIGMA GREEN BELT CERTIFICATION PROGRAM

Lean Six Sigma is the Green Belt Process Improvement Program. This nomination-based program is designed to teach administrative teams about a data-driven approach to process improvement through real-time completion of projects. The Lean Six Sigma program consists of two separate week-long training sessions, team project work, team presentations, and coaching from our Lean Six Sigma consultant. The total time commitment is approximately 136 hours over the course of eight months (17 hours per month). Upon successful completion of the program, cohort members are provided with information and support for how to become certified through the International Association of Lean Six Sigma Certification (IASSC). Candidates are encouraged to take the certification exam to receive universal Lean Six Sigma Green Belt Certification.
NEW HIRE TRAINING

PREVENTING WORKPLACE HARASSMENT
Carnegie Mellon is committed to providing a respectful and motivating environment, free from discrimination and harassment. Our online Preventing Workplace Harassment course will help you understand:
- What constitutes harassment
- How to avoid engaging in behavior that could be considered harassing
- What to do if you witness or experience harassment
New employees are expected to complete the course within the first 30 days at Carnegie Mellon. The course will take approximately 2 hours to complete.

STAFF SUPERVISORY AWARENESS PROGRAM
Over the course of eight distinct modules, the Staff Supervisory Awareness Program explores the fundamental tools and resources needed to effectively and successfully lead and supervise others. The program is structured in a blended format where participants complete parts of the training via live sessions and others through self-paced exercises. The course content encompasses a broad range of core human resources’ knowledge critical to your success as a supervisor. Participants are introduced to information that builds a foundation to become better champions of the core values of empathy, compassion, inclusion, dedication, impact and collaboration.

Participants will also learn how to infuse diversity, equity and inclusion into their day-to-day activities as a supervisor at CMU. Ultimately, participants will be enabled with the information and skills to help them as supervisors to facilitate a work environment in which employees are treated with dignity and respect.

CIVIL TREATMENT FOR EMPLOYEES
Civil Treatment for Employees (CTE) simulates realistic workplace scenarios, offering insights and practical skills that are relevant to your organization’s success. By focusing on day-to-day behaviors along with the law, CTE is part of a comprehensive and sustainable learning solution designed to challenge and motivate employees to consider the impact of their own behavior and encourage them to speak up when issues arise. The Civil Treatment for Employees course is a dynamic and interactive learning experience that promotes clear understanding of your organization’s workplace standards and expectations, positively impacting your workplace culture and business results in ways that align with your organization’s vision and values.

CIVIL TREATMENT FOR LEADERS
The Civil Treatment for Leaders (CTL) training provides leaders with the skills and insights they need to achieve positive business results and engage employees in ways that inspire their best work. Rather than focusing on the law exclusively, CTL focuses on a wide range of behaviors to offer a comprehensive learning solution based on realistic business simulations to spark new insights for leaders in how “doing what we’ve always done” is affecting results in ways they may not have considered. With simple and sustainable learning models and tools, leaders will develop skills proven to positively impact their workplace culture and business results. The Civil Treatment for Leaders (CTL) course leverages proven adult learning methodologies to provide a dynamic, diverse and experiential learning. This training program provides insight for leaders at every stage of their careers and at every level of the organization.
EVERFI DIVERSITY, EQUITY, AND CIVILITY TRAINING

Diversity in the modern workplace can be challenging. To help broaden your understanding and awareness, we invite all CMU employees to take time to complete two, on-demand courses available in FocusU. We are confident that everyone who views these engaging presentations will walk away with a better self-understanding and will be better equipped to apply this information in their personal work environment.

- Managing Bias (20 minutes) - Identify and reduce the negative effects of bias in the workplace.
- Diversity: Inclusion in the Workplace (60 minutes) - Explore the benefits of diversity in the workplace and provide practical strategies for workplace inclusion.

COMMITTING TO DIVERSITY, EQUITY AND INCLUSION

The need for diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI) on our campuses has never been as self-evident. “Social justice” is no longer just a rallying cry; instead, it’s one of the crucial measures by which an institution is judged. These courses seek to encourage dialogue and understanding between different races, religions, ages, gender identities, and people with disabilities.

- Faculty and Staff (25 minutes)
- Supervisors (25 minutes)

GREEN DOT

The Green Dot program was conceived on a college campus to prevent dating violence, sexual violence and stalking. It relies on the premise that if every member of the campus community - students, staff, administrators and faculty - does their small part, the combined effect is a culture that is safe and intolerant of violence. Green Dot training demonstrates how everyone can combat negative behavior through bystander engagement. Learn more and access videos and training information on University Health Services’ Green Dot page.

CMULEAD

As Carnegie Mellon University continues to be one of the world’s leading research universities, a commitment to our staff members’ professional development becomes ever more important. The CMULEad program aims to prepare our talented and dedicated staff to take on leadership roles.

The program aims include:

- Developing fundamental and inclusive leadership skills including how to motivate and inspire others while fostering an inclusive, equitable and diverse environment for all staff to thrive
- Learning and demonstrating key leadership abilities related to team building, coaching, collaborating, improving processes and leading strategically
- Understanding the strategic and operational aspects of CMU
- Demonstrating effective communication, problem solving, conflict resolution, negotiation and presentation skills

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT INITIATIVE

Through a partnership with Leadership Pittsburgh, the Leadership Development Initiative (LDI) program is an investment in the future leader. LDI is an eight-month program for high-potential young professionals. This creative and innovative leadership training program has served as a model for several others around the country. Our faculty utilize data-driven training models and provide access to experts who share their experiences as our community grooms the talented professionals who will lead this region in the coming years. LDI strengthens the bonds of this highly mobile talent pool with others in their cohort and with the region and serves as a retention and engagement tool for our area’s businesses and nonprofits.

To learn more about the nomination-based program, please visit the Leadership Pittsburgh website or the internal program page.

COMMUNITY LEADERSHIP COURSE FOR VETERANS

Offered through a partnership with Leadership Pittsburgh, the Community Leadership Course for Veterans™ (CLCV™) initiative aims to leverage the skills and experiences of post-9/11 veterans for the betterment of the broader Pittsburgh region. CLCV™ is a newer offering of this 36-year-old organization which is recognized as the premier source for identification and connection of leaders across sectors with issues, each other, and with community needs/opportunities.

Through participation in the six-month course, CLCV™ cohort members have the opportunity to develop a greater understanding of our region, meet with business and community leaders, as well as utilize their leadership skills to accomplish a community impact project in partnership with a local nonprofit organization. This course provides participants with the exposure, experiences and connections that prepare them to tackle the challenges of our community. Bi-weekly sessions cover topics such as corporate landscape, nonprofit landscape, history of Pittsburgh, savvy networking and more. To learn more about the nomination-based program, please visit the Leadership Pittsburgh website.

TAKE OUR CHILDREN TO WORK DAY
CMU Take Our Children to Work Day is an annual event sponsored by Staff Council. The event coincides with the National Take Our Children to Work Day and consists of employees bringing their children to work so that children can observe and learn about what their parents do at work. Like so many other events during the past year, the 2021 Take Our Children to Work Day was modified into a virtual experience consisting of pre-recorded presentations that can be viewed from the CMU Take Our Children to Work Day 2021 web page. Be sure to mark your calendar for this annual event and consider giving back by participating in the future.

VIBRANT PITTSBURGH
Vibrant Pittsburgh’s mission is to build a thriving and inclusive Pittsburgh region by attracting, retaining and elevating a diversity of talent. Vibrant Pittsburgh accomplishes this vision by partnering with regional employers, such as CMU, to promote and implement initiatives that are designed to welcome and retain more diverse talent.

Our membership with Vibrant Pittsburgh allows members of the CMU community to access data, articles, tools, and other resources about diversity and inclusion in our region.
