Welcome, Kathleen!

Your generous support for United Way is what makes our work possible. Thanks to you, we are able to provide vital human services support that meets basic needs, moves people to financial stability and builds for success in school and life.

Times have been difficult for many of our neighbors. Though I continue to be amazed by the resilience of our communities, we also know that a single job loss, illness or accident can disrupt the delicate balancing act of so many families who are just making ends meet.

Though rising costs have made that balancing act more difficult, your contributions provide hope.

Because of you, United Way is able to invest in partner agencies that are helping families establish stronger financial footing and make progress toward fulfilling their dreams. Your donations make it possible for us to invest in agencies and services that are innovative, effective and based in the communities they serve.

We consider these agencies our partners and are honored that you see value in the work we are doing together.

United is the way to help people thrive.

Bobbi Watt Geer, Ph.D.
President & CEO, United Way of Southwestern PA
