Instructions for Remote Workers — Completing the Form I-9 Employment Verification

Federal Law requires Carnegie Mellon University to have a valid Form I-9 on file for every employee, and requires the employee to complete the Form I-9 no later than three business days from their employment start date. The Form I-9 has two sections: Section 1 is completed and signed by the employee, and Section 2 is completed and signed by the employer (or authorized representative) after examining the employee's original documents (see List of Acceptable Documents).

Because the university employs individuals in a variety of locations across the United States, it may not be possible for the employee(s) to travel to a Carnegie Mellon University office location to complete their Form I-9. The following process is to be followed for any employee whose work location is not a Carnegie Mellon site or who is unable to travel to a Carnegie Mellon University campus to complete their Form I-9. THIS PROCESS IS NOT TO BE USED BY EMPLOYEES IN PITTSBURGH.

Process for completing the Form I-9 at a remote location:

1. You (employee) completes Section #1 (found on page 3) by the first day of employment, either before visiting a designated representative or in the presence of the designated representative. You will need to take the Form I-9 and your document(s) from the List of Acceptable Documents to the designated representative to complete Section #2. The designated representative can be a Notary Public (find a notary), or you can call the Human Resources Service Center to locate another university or school in your area where you can complete Section #2.

2. When you visit the designated representative, please provide them with our instructions for completing Section #2 (found on page 2). If they have questions or concerns, they should call the contact number listed on the instructions.

3. Please send us the original completed form (not a photocopy) and a copy of the documents you presented to the representative. These must be postmarked no later than three business days from your employment start date. Please mail the necessary information to:

   HR Service Center
   Attn: I-9 Processing
   4516 Henry St.
   Pittsburgh, PA 15213

Failure to complete the Form I-9 in a timely manner will delay important onboarding items including access to university systems, the ability to complete benefit elections (if applicable), setting up payment elections (direct deposit), and tax withholding elections (federal, state and local taxes). If you have questions regarding the process for completing Form I-9 verification for off-site employees or the other required Carnegie Mellon University onboarding steps, contact the HR Service Center at 412-268-4600 or create a ticket at https://www.cmu.edu/hr/hr-service-center/help/index.html.
Instructions for Designated Representatives completing Section #2 of the Form I-9:

Thank you for completing Section #2 of the Form I-9 Employment Authorization on behalf of Carnegie Mellon University (CMU). Please follow these steps to complete the form accurately and completely. You can also find detailed instructions and frequently asked questions at the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services I-9 Central.

1. The CMU employee will present to you the Form I-9 with Section #1 already completed, or they may complete Section #1 in your presence.

2. Please complete Section #2 on the second page of the form. We have pre-populated the employer name and address for your convenience.

3. Examine the documents presented by the employee from either List A or List B and C of the List of Acceptable Documents. Please note: the documents presented must be the original documents. You may not accept a picture, photocopy, video, etc. of the List A or List B and C documents. If the employee does not have the original document(s), they will need to return with them to complete the form.

4. Please fill in the required information and make a legible copy of the documents that were presented to you.

5. Notary Publics: Please do not stamp the Form I-9 with your seal. You are completing Section #2 on behalf of Carnegie Mellon University and acting as one of our authorized representatives, not as a notary.

If you have any questions regarding the form or instructions, please contact Gregory Shughart, HCM Support Manager in the HR Service Center, via email at gshughar@andrew.cmu.edu or by calling 412-268-4600.

Regards,

Gregory Shughart

START HERE: Read instructions carefully before completing this form. The instructions must be available, either in paper or electronically, during completion of this form. Employers are liable for errors in the completion of this form.

ANTI-DISCRIMINATION NOTICE: It is illegal to discriminate against work-authorized individuals. Employers CANNOT specify which document(s) an employee may present to establish employment authorization and identity. The refusal to hire or continue to employ an individual because the documentation presented has a future expiration date may also constitute illegal discrimination.

Section 1. Employee Information and Attestation (Employees must complete and sign Section 1 of Form I-9 no later than the first day of employment, but not before accepting a job offer.)
