My Plaid Student

My Plaid Student is a service of Carnegie Mellon University that allows each student to designate individuals who are authorized to view certain categories of the student's education records. You have been granted access to information concerning the students listed on this page.

As required by the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA), each student has previously consented to your access to his or her information on the My Plaid Student website. Each student may select which categories of information you may or may not access. At any time, a student may modify the categories of information you are authorized to access. At

Grades & QPA: If your student permits you to view their final grades and QPA, you will be able to select any semester available for your student. Students must select the mid-semester grades option, in addition to final grades and QPA, in order for mid-semester grades to be viewable to the MPS user.
