

This form should be used on a case-by-case basis - not as a general release of ALL a student's records (ie. parent wants student's grade report for Fall 2014). This form should be submitted by the student each time a parent wants access to a specific record at a specific time. This form does not give a parent access to Student Information Online (SIO).

Consent to Release Information to Parent or Family Member

Pursuant to the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, students should use this form to allow information or documents relating to academic standing, actions, appeals, personal information, etc. to be released to a family member. Please fill out this form, sign and date. Return this form to The HUB, Warner Hall, Lower Level.
