

Preparing for CMU

June is finally here, which means you're just a few short months away from starting an exciting journey at Carnegie Mellon! The information below will help you stay on track as you continue to prepare for your first semester. As always, please check your CMU email often to ensure that you don't miss important information and reminders.

Onboarding Checklist

Remember to review the onboarding checklist for upcoming deadlines. Be sure to complete all required tasks by their due date, and also consider if the recommended tasks would benefit you.

Onboarding Checklist

Upcoming deadlines:

- June 9 - Attend the First-Year International Student Welcome & Onboarding Webinar* (international students only)
- June 15 - Complete Information in MyOIE portal* (international students only)

Newly available task:

- Writing Course Placement for Nonnative English speakers* (due July 31)

Indicates a required task*

Meet The HUB

As of June 1, first-year student records have officially moved from the Office of Admission to The HUB, Carnegie Mellon's one-stop-shop for student enrollment services. The HUB staff provides assistance and counsel to students and families for financial aid, billing and payments, registration activities and academic records. Based on your college and program, you are assigned a HUB liaison who will serve as your single point of contact throughout your university experience.

About The HUB

Meet OIE

The Office of International Education (OIE) serves CMU's international student and scholar community by advising individuals on immigration, personal, academic, social and acculturation issues. OIE's friendly, knowledgeable and experienced staff are passionate about promoting a positive intercultural environment and experience. International students and scholars should regularly check their email and OIE's website during their time at CMU for important immigration updates and reminders.

About OIE